Blockade Removal Negotiations— America Hands Russia A Note

Formal Statement Requested As To When And On What Conditions Soviet Will Lift Barrier

NEW YORK—(AP)—The United States delivered a note to the Russians here today asking for a formal statement as to when and on what conditions they will lift their Berlin blockade.

The note was taken by Philip C. Jessup, American ambassador-at-large, to Soviet Deputy Foreign Minister Jakob A. Malik.

Jessup called on Malik at the Soviet offices on upper Park avenue at 12:30 p. m. (10:30 a. m. CST).

The text of the American communication was not made public, but informed quarters said its main purpose was to shift the Berlin negotiations to a formal basis and get Russia's views down on paper.

Nothing In Writing Yet.

Previously no views had been exchanged in writing since Jessup first brought up the question in an informal talk with Malik at Lake Success Feb. 15.

Jessup brought the note with him on his return to New York this morning after talks in Washington yesterday with President Truman and state department officials.

Before going alone to see Malik, Jessup met with members of the U. S. delegation to the U.N. at the American headquarters, 2 Park avenue. He disappeared later and was understood to have called on British and French representatives to show them the note.

The American note was understood to seek clarification specifically on two issues: An exact understanding as to what would be involved in any agreement to lift the blockade and a proposed timetable.

Some Delay Likely.

A U. S. spokesman said this switch to a formal exchange of notes probably would result in some delay in getting Russia's views. It was expected, he said, that Malik would transmit the American note to his immediate superior here, Deputy Foreign Ministeer Andrei A. Gromyko, who in turn probably would have to consult Moscow before replying.

The United States hopes to learn whether Russia is ready to lift the blockade of Berlin without attaching unacceptable conditions.

Britain Will Accept.

LONDON—(AP)—Britain will accept Russia's terms for lifting the blockade of Berlin, an official British source said tonight.

The informant said Britain's willingness has been conveyed to the United States government. The two governments have been in close consultation on the Moscow offer.

Moscow radio announced yesterday Russia would end the blockade if the western powers at the same time would lift their counter-blockade of east Germany and set a date for a meeting of the Big Four foreign ministers to discuss a peace settlement for Germany as a whole.

Calder Is New Army Secretary

. . . To Replace Royall

WASHINGTON—(AP)— Curtis E. Calder, utilities executive, has agreed to become secretary of the army.

Gordon Gray, now assistant secretary, will be promoted to undersecretary and serve as acting secretary until Calder can take over the post.

Calder, chairman of the board of Electric Bond & Share, says he will be ready to take over the top army post within 60 days.

Secretary of Defense Louis Johnson, who had been urging Calder to take the post, was reported to have discussed the matter with President Truman during a White House call today.

Federal School Aid Bill Passed By Legislature

Legislation qualifying Nebraska for federal school aid was passed Wednesday by the legislature and sent to the governor for his signature.

The bill, which is in direct opposition to stands taken by Senators Kenneth S. Wherry, and Hugh Butler, in the senate on federal aid to schools legislation, provides that any federal funds coming to the state would be channeled through the state superintendent's office.

Also passed was LB 251, provides standard provisions for group life insurance policies.

Heart Attack Fatal To B. Christensen While Driving Car

KIMBALL, Neb. — (AP) — B. Christensen, about 54, a Kimball insurance man, died of a heart attack while driving on the highway 39 miles west of Kimball yesterday, Sheriff R. H. Tatum said.

The Sheriff reported Christensen's car went over the bank through a fence and rolled about a half mile. He is survived by his widow and a son, Paul, of Kimball.

Introduction De-Control Bill Is O.K.'d

Senators voting against introdurction of bill were senators John Adams, and J. V. Benesch both of Omaha, and Victor Anderson, of Lincoln.

Repeal Of Oleo Levy Approved

. . . By Senate Committee

WASHINGTON— (AP) — The senate finance committee today approved the house-passed oleomargarine tax repeal bill. Its action sends the measure on to the senate.

Chairman George (D-Ga) announced the bill was okayed by a voice vote. He said he had no idea when the senate itself might vote on it in view of the press of other legislation.

Before the committee acted, it rejected 7-6 a rider amendment by Sen. Edwin C. Johnson (D-Colo) to cut excise taxes—such as those on telephone bills, theater tickets and transportation—back to 1942 levels. Virtually all were raised during the war.

The oleomargarine bill would repeal all the 63-year-old federal taxes on the product. These are 10 cents a pound on the colored kind and one-fourth cent a pound on uncolored. There are also license fees for manufacturers and dealers in oleomargarine.

The measure places no restriction on the sale or shipment of yellow oleomargarine, but public easting places serving the colored product would have to identify it as such and serve it in a triangular form.

The bill has no effect on the laws of 18 states which prohibit sale of colored oleomargarine.

Jake Bird's Execution Is Set For May

. . . DEATH WARRANT SIGNED

TACOMA, Wash.—(AP) — The hex is dead, and the man who says he invoked it for five deaths is scheduled to be executed next month.

Jake Bird, 47-year-old North Carolina Negro who confessed implication in 44 murders, saw Superior Judge Hugh Rosselini sign his death warrant yesterday. The execution is scheduled for May 27.

Courtroom attaches wondered whether Jake would call down the wrath of his hex on the judge.

But in a cell interview afterward, Birl said "I don't believe in the hex any more."

He is the confessed ax slayer of Mrs. Bertha Kludt Oct. 30, 1947.

3 Amendments Liberal Arts Degree Bill Lose

Supporters Turn Back Motion To Kill By 22-16; Set Measure Up For Final Vote

By ARCH DONOVAN.

Beating off three attempts to amend and to kill, adherants of allowing state normal schools to grant B.A. degrees Wednesday succeeded in advancing the bill for engrossment for final action.

Sen. William Metzger first introduced an amendment which would require the four colleges to first meet the requirements of the North Central Association of Colleges and Secondary Schools "as to courses of study, faculty, library facilities and physical plant and equipment." This, the amendment provided, must be done with "no expansion of the present facilities."

"Let's not give degrees that don't amount to anything," Sen. Metzger pleaded. "Get approval of good courses first."

He poitned out that it was an injustice to the students attending, if state institutions of learning gave degrees that would not have highest recognition elsewhere.

Window Dressing.

Sen. Ray Babcock charged that after the "window dressing and smoke screen" of the debate is taken away the bill simply is one to "justify these four colleges" and the result of "pressure from the communities." He said he was certain three teachers colleges could take care of the needs of the state and that five now exist.

"You know it is wrong, but hope it is right," the Sidney senator admonished his colleagues. "There are no schols in my district, but there are taxpayers, and they are getting punch drunk from this argument. I would like to turn the state back to the taxpayers at least as good as when we took it over on Jan. 1."

Referring to past debate on the bill, Sen. Babcock said he would like to speak in behalf of the "O Street Gang." He said that when the Reclamation association, working in behalf of the entire state, was unable to raise its budget, Lincoln came to thier aid with $3,000.

Deny High Pressured.

Sen. William Hern of Chadron, introducer of the bill, denied that he had been "high pressured" and reiterated his statements that his action was taken at the request of students. He insisted that budget requests of the colleges did not include funds for the purpose of giving added degrees.

Answering charges that future legislatures would be asked to provide more and more money, the peppery Dawes county cattleman said:

"I am not afraid of the action of future legislatures. I think they will compare very favorably with this session. At least, they won't try 5 or 6 times to raise bills killed in committee as has been done here today."

His remark was aimed at previous action, when Sen. Lester Anderson had sought to raise LB 196, which would have given an increase in pay to the attorney general from $5,000 to $7,500. The motion was defeated, with 24 voting aye, 12 nay, and 7 not voting. A total of 29 votes is needed to raise the measure.

$200,000 Sliced.

Only Anderson spoke on his proposal before the vote was taken. He said all surrounding states paid constitutional officers more than Nebraska. "We are not

Attorney General Pay Hike Measure Rejected 3rd Time

The legislature for the third time Wednesday defeated a motion to raise LB 196, to increase the salary of the attorney general from $5,000 to $7,500 annually.

The bill was one of 21 salary increase measures first killed by the miscellaneous appropriations committee.

It fell along with all the others in an initial attempt to raise the entire group of bills. Later, it was defeated by itself, and Wednesday went down for the third time. The vote was 24 for raising it and 12 against.

Twenty-nine votes would have been needed to put the bill on general file. Sen. Lester Anderson, Aurora, made the motion.

Closest To Passage

While the Burney proposal was killed, it was the closest that a sales tax had come yet to passage in Nebraska. Two years ago the bill was killed in committee, and a move to revive the measure on the floor got only six votes, compared to Wednesday's twelve against indefinite postponement.

Parking Fight May End Up In District Court

Injunction Suit Scheduled To Be Filed This Week

The "parallel vs. diagional" parking fight is headed for the courts.

An injunction to prohibit the change from parallel to angle parking in the downtown area will be filed in District court this week, The Star learned fram an authoritive source Wednesday.

The court will be asked to grant a temporary restraining order to halt the changeover which has already been ordered by the city council, it was reported.

The return to diagonal parking was voted at the city's primary election by a small margin.

Meanwhile, Cobe Venner, welfare and safety director, said police were measuring curbs on north Sixteenth street Wednesday. When allowances for curb cuts are made and the measuring completed, police will begin marking the street, possibly Thursday morning, Venner said. There are no meters to be moved on Sixteenth.

Venner estimates the job of remarking streets and resetting meters will take from two to three weeks. Work on the changeover from parallel to 35 degree parking is proceeding as rapidly as possible.

The council Monday picked 35 degrees as the angle for parking, exempted certain streets in the wholesale district and agreed to thrash out the special problems there next Monday.

Sweeten Senators

Twice in a week Sen. Otto Prohs, Gering, has presented members of the legislature with a sample of the products of the district he represents—Scotts Bluff county.

Last week it was beans.

Today, he presented each member with a 10-pound sack of sugar.

New Form Of Taxation Rejected By Senators

Tvrdik's Motion To Kill Carries After Delay Bid Of Metzger Rejected 23-16

By GLENN SPEIDEL.

The state legislature Wednesday by a vote of 30 to 12, killed the proposed Nebraska two per cent sales tax.

The motion to kill the bill was made by Sen. Charles Tvrdik, Omaha, in Tuesday's session, but the legislature adjourned before a vote was taken. Sen. Tvrdik's motion was pending before the legislature Wednesday when debate was renewed.

An earlier motion by Sen. William Metzger, Cedar Creek, to withhold action on the bill for one week was lost by a vote of 16 to 23. Sen. Metzger and Sen Dwight Burney, Hartington, were co-introducers of the measure, LB 234.

Hits New Expense.

In the last hour of debate Wednesday both proponents and opponents of the measure restated arguments advanced during the longer debate Tuesday.

Sen. Cliff Ogden, Omaha, in opposing the bill, said, "My observation has been that a broadened tax base always leads to additional expense by broadening of governmental services. If the state budget requires an increase in the tax levy, it is a small item, because the state tax is the smallest item of the general levy."

"The state is supported on the local level rather than on the state level," Sen. Tvrdik contended. "The incentive for economy in government would be lost with a sales tax."

Not Business Deterrent.

In favoring the bill, Sen. Arthur Carmody, Trenton, said "The states having the most business and the greatest volume of labor have a sales tax. This has proven to me that a sales tax is not a deterrent to business."

In his final argument for his bill, Sen. Burney stated, "The laboring man will benefit from the broadening of the tax base in Nebraska. This is the only revenue raising measure pending before this legislature."

The vote on the motion to kill was:

Princeton Car Crash Kills Woman

Three Others Are Injured As Autos Collide Head-On

One woman was killed and three persons injured in a two-car, head-on collision one-half mile south and one-fourth mile east of Princeton, Wednesday morning.

Killed instantly was Mrs. Amelia Tiedeman, 60. She was the wife of Herman Tiedeman, farmer living southeast of Princeton.

Lincoln Couple Hurt.

Injured were Lyle Tiedeman, 20, Princeon, Lester Essink, 23, and his wife Irene, 20, 1833 N street, Lincoln. All were under observation at St. Elizabeth hospital Wednesday afternoon.

Mrs. Essink, an expectant mother, had lacerations on her arms and legs and was described as "resting well," according to hospital attendants. Lester Essink has possible fractures, his physician said. Attendants said Tiedeman's condition was "fair."

According to the safety patrol, the accident occurred about 7:40 a. m., on the east-west gravel road just south of Princeton.

The Tiedeman car was going east and the Essink car was traveling west. Mrs. Tiedeman was a passenger in the car driven by her son. The other vehicle was driven by Mr. Essink.

Not Thrown From Car.

Mrs. Tiedeman, riding in the front seat, was not thrown from the car, Patrolman C. C. Whitney said.

Both drivers said they were traveling about 35 miles per hour, Deputy Sheriff Les Hasson said. Hasson, acting as coroner, said the Tiedeman car was smashed in the front end and the Essink vehicle damaged in the front on the right side.

Patrolmen Whitney said the right front wheel of the Essink car was driven back nearly two feet.

According to Hasson, Lyle Tiedeman walked to the Glen Barnard farm, more than a half-mile away, following the accident and called a doctor and an ambulance. Hasson said there were no eye witnesses to the accident other than those riding in the two cars.

Accident Mile From Home.

The Tiedemans had just left their farm home, about one mile east of the accident scene, to visit Mrs. Tiedeman's sister south of Princeton, Hasson said. The Essinks were driving to the farm home of Mrs. Essink's parents, who lived nearby.

Mrs. Tiedeman's death was the first traffic fatality in the county outside the city of Lincoln this year.

Mrs. Tiedeman is survived by her husband Herman, a son Lyle, six sisters and one brother.

The body was taken to the Broekema funeral home in Hickman.

Are Nebraska's Neighbors Downhearted???

(An Editorial)

BY JAMES E. LAWRENCE

Nebraska's "White Spot" in this year of 1949 loses some of its sheen when placed alongside Nebraska's good neighbors to the north, west, south, and east.

These neighboring commonwealths—all Missouri basin states—young or old—apparently age cuts no figure—reveal a spirit of up-and-coming while in Nebraska we lag—filled with fear—overwhelmed with despair—tormented and divided among ourselves.

When this was written the state legislatures meeting in all of Nebraska's neighboring states had completed their labors, locked the door, and had gone home, with their work well done. In Missouri final action on the appropriation bills was the last remaining hurdle to be cleared before adjournment.

And, in neighboring Wyoming to the northwest, 59 years a state, population 250,752 by the official census of 1940, the last taken, what did the legislature do for its state university? It appropriated $4,146,750 in tax funds, plus added oil royalties, not considered state tax support, approximating $1,500,000, that its state university may become bigger and better.

What is the story that comes from neighboring South Dakota, population 642,961, half the population of Nebraska? Its legislature which has just completed its labors appropriated $5,387,400 for the next biennium for the support of its state university and its agricultural college, an increase of approximately $2,000,000 in tax funds that its university may grow, do its job better.

What is the story that comes from Colorado, population 1,123,296? There the legislature that has just finished its tasks appropriated $4,191,129 for the next biennium in tax funds for the Colorado State college at Fort Collins; $6,364,000 in tax funds for the next biennium for the University of Colorado at Boulder—a total of $10,555,129 for the biennium in tax funds, an increase of $4,000,000.

What is the story that comes from east of the Missouri—from neighboring Iowa—population 2,538,268? The legislature that finished its labors there last week appropriated in tax funds alone $10,000,000 for the next biennium for the University of Iowa at Iowa City—an equal amount in tax funds, $10,000,000, for Iowa State college at Ames—a total of $20,000,000 in tax funds—an increase of $7,000,000 for the biennium—or an increase of $3,500,000 for each institution.

. . . A scene from "Bleeding Kansas" while Governor Carlson happily signs the appropriation bill giving the University of Kansas $14,228,500 in tax funds for operation and maintenance expense; Kansas state college, Manhattan, (agriculture) $6,440,000, plus building funds, a total of $20,668,500.

Again across the Missouri, what is the story that comes from the state of Missouri, population 3,784,664? With the senate yet to act there, the lower house of the Missouri legislature had set aside $11,181,400 in tax funds for the next biennium—an increase of $2,233,105 for the next two years.

What is the story that comes from Kansas directly to the south, population 1,801,028? There the legislature appropriated tax funds in the sum of $8,771,000 for operating expenses out of tax funds alone, $5,957,500 for buildings, a total of $14,228,500 for the University of Kansas at Lawrence. There the legislature appropriated $6,440,000 for the Kansas State Agricultural college at Manhattan, along with adequate funds for a new field house to cost $1,725,000, and a dormitory to cost $500,000, plant facilities which never come from tax funds in the state of Nebraska. There in Kansas the legislature which has just completed its duties appropriated in tax funds $20,668,500 for its two tax-supported institutions of higher learning.

In each instance in connection with Nebraska's neighbors the figures given do not include tuition, fees, endowments, federal funds, or building revenues except those specifically mentioned at Kansas. In each instance the figures set forth represent only tax money, with tuition, receipts of fees, and federal funds reappropriated as a matter of formality.

What has been done in neighboring states, we believe, is of general interest to all Nebraskans. It projects an impressive story of the spirit to build in these neighboring states. Here in Nebraska, a state which long prided itself as a leader among the institutions of higher education in the Midwest, with a bright pioneer tradition of leadership, we have become bogged down with despair while our neighbors push ahead.

Here are the figures for the biennium appropriations of all these neighboring state universities, some of them combined under one roof as in the instance of Nebraska, Missouri and Wyoming—some of them maintained as separate institutions as in the instance of Iowa, Kansas, South Dakota and Colorado. But here are the appropriations, which deserve to be read thoughtfully—which in all instances refer only to tax funds, and which do not include tuition, fees, federal revenues or building funds over which for weeks now there has been sharp controversy in this state.

That's the story of Nebraska's neighbors. That's what they think of their state universities. That's what they're willing to spend for agricultural research since they, no less than Nebraska, are agricultural states; that's what they're willing to dig down deeply into their pockets to provide in the way of medical education, for the liberal arts, for the professions, for their young people that their young people may have the best there is even though it involves individual sacrifice. That is the story of Nebraska's neighbors—the story written by legislatures in these neighboring states—legislatures filled with hope—not despair—legislatures imbued with purpose to provide adequate educational facilities for young people in a new world age of science.

Just an extract from typical Kansas comment:

"There is joy in the hearts of the University of Kansas folk as they hear of the fine support given the university by the 1949 Kansas legislature. With

Budget For U. Of N. Is Unchanged

Committee Reportedly Keeps $7,400,000 Figure

A $7,400,000 tax appropriation for the University of Nebraska, with the original request slashed twice, appeared today to be the figure the budget committee will recommend to the legislature.

The committee met in executive session yesterday following a public hearing on another matter. It reportedly took no further action the university appropriation, subject of considerable speculation last week.

The university requested $10,000,000 in tax funds; Governor Peterson recommended $7,800,000; and the committee settled on $7,400,000.

Senator Lillibridge of Crete, member of the committee, protested against an editorial in the Daily Nebraskan, campus publication, which had charged the students were being "short changed in their education."

The editorial urged that students ask their parents to appeal to their legislator for appropriation of the full amount requested by the university. .

"We cut $400,000 off the governor's recommendation, but we've still given them $800,000 more than they got two years ago," Lillibridge commented.

The university's tax appropriation for the current biennium was $6,602,000.

doing to have good government long, unless we attract good candidates with fair salaries," Anderson said.

Sen. John McKnight charged that the amendments were merely an attempt to make the bill unworkable. He said the accrediting agency, as a matter of policy, does not examine colleges for ability to give degrees until the courses of study have been offered for two years. He called attention to state law that permits five persons with $5,000 to organize a college and grant any degree.

Sen. W. J. Williams announced that the budget committee had reduced the budget for normal schools by $200,000 and that this action would make it necessary for the normal board to increase tuition fees next year. He called attention to a survey made of the views of editors of the state.

He said that newspaper reports showed 256 requests for expressions made with 87 replies. Of these, he said, 30 approved the bill, 16 opposed it and 41 didn't know.

Sen. W. Halsey Bohlke, Hastings, answering arguments that the normal schools permit children to stay at home, asserted that "they don't amount to much unless they get away from home." Sen. Willard Wilson then asked him if he believed Hastings youth should attend Hastings college. Good-natured raillery followed the questioning.

Amendment Vote.

Vote on the "qualifications" was as follows:

FOR THE AMENDMENT.

V. Anderson	Babcock
Bohlke	Bridenbaugh
Cramer	Davies
Hoyt	Larkin
Lee	Lillibridge
Lindgren	Metzger
Person	Pizer
Wood

AGAINST.

J. Adams	T. Adam
L. Anderson	Benesch
Burney	Burnham
Callan	Carmody
Carson	Cretsinger
Hanna	Hern
Hill	Holmes
McKnight	Nelson
Norman	Prohs
Schroeder	Tyrdik
Vogt	Weborg
Williams	W. Wilson

NOT VOTING.

Ogden	Lusienski
Vogel	C. Wilson

Sen. Lillibridge then offered an amendment that would require that 35 per cent of the cost of granting the liberal arts degree be covered by tuition and other fees "after proper accreditization." His amendment also provided that out-of-state students be required to pay double the tuition charged resident students.

The Crete senator said that this policy is in effect at the state university and he pointed to the large percentage of out-of-state students in attendance at Wayne. The amendment failed by a vote of 16 for, 17 against and 10 not voting.

Sen. Metzger then introduced another amendment which would permit Peru and Chadron to continue operation and giving degrees under the normal board, but would transfer Kearney and Wayne to the jurisdiction of the board of regents. His amendment would have had them operate as branches of the state university.

Single Board.

"This was not proposed by the university," Metzger explained. He said that in his opinion it brought together two divergent views on higher education and would be the first step in establishment of a single board of higher education.

The divergent views, he said, had the university pulling on one side and the normal schools on the other.

Metzger recalled that at legislative council hearings Chancellor Gustavson expressed the opinion that the regents now have all the work they have time to do in caring for the university problems and that he opposed adding normals to their duties.

In principle, Sens. Schroeder, McKnight and W. Wilson all said a single board of education appeared feasible, but they urged that it be given further study.

Motion Loses.

Sen. Schroeder said a similar bill with the exception that the people would have been given a vote was introduced two years ago and killed. He said that one of the advantages would be transfer of students from the crowded classrooms of the university teachers college to the less crowded Peru college.

When the amendment was killed with 10 supporting it, 23 opposed and 10 not voting, Sen. Metzger moved to strike the enacting clause.

In making his motion, Metzger questioned the sincerity of those favoring the bill, when they refused to adopt amendments.

Sen. Williams voiced objection to the "insinuation that we are not sincere." He said the bill was sent to general file by the education committee by a 9 to 0 vote. As to tuition fee increases, he said the budget committee had taken care of that.

Sen. Hern also challenged the charge of insincerity. "I don't think statements of that kind should be allowed on the floor of the legislature," he asserted.

Hern explained that he has been friendly to education during all of his terms in the legislature and each session has voted for increased appropriations for the state university.

Sen. Schroeder explained opposition to the amendments by saying the first sought to change operations of the accrediting agency over which the state had no control. The second, he said, would have taken over functions given the normal board. The third he said sought to make changes now provided in the constitution and would be evasion unless the constitution is changed.

Vote on the striking of the enacting clause was 16 for 22 against and 5 not voting. By voice vote the bill was then advanced.

Are Nebraska's Neighbors Downhearted?

an operating budget of $8,771,000 for the next two years, and building additions of $2,962,000 provided in addition, the institution takes its place on a new high level of service in the life of the state."

And we might add that the Kansas State Agricultural college with $6,440,000 of tax funds will do its part in Kansas for agricultural research, which Nebraska Dean Lambert so wisely reminded a Feeders' day audience only last week becomes all the more important in eras of price declines.

We know the legislative leadership in Nebraska has been plagued and tormented with many troubles, but Nebraska's legislative leadership has not had any more troubles than the legislative leadership of these neighboring states. Nebraska, with four times the population of Wyoming, with double the population of South Dakota, with more population than Colorado, and with only half a million fewer people than Kansas, surely has had no greater headaches than the peoples of these states.

But what do we have?

We have, as Bob Agee so aptly put it early in the week, the "White Spot Doldrums," a leadership of fault-finding. We have a leadership that closes its eyes to what is happening around it—a leadership that says that we can't do this, and we can't do that, while all around about us we see a leadership with some faith in its people, based upon a belief that people look forward, not backwards—that the Nebraska tradition is to create, not to starve and destroy—that education in this state is one of the heaviest responsibilities that rests upon us, and not only one of the heaviest responsibilities but one of our greatest opportunities for growth and progress.

★

We don't expect that the members of the Nebraska unicameral will like this. They have been talking economy, and in their talk they have been utterly and wholly honest. The pathetic thing about it is that they have convinced themselves that what they say is true. They have pulled the shades down upon everything happening around them, they have resigned themselves to the fact that there isn't the inherent will in this state to match strides with states that are younger, less populous; to match strides reasonably with neighboring states that are older, more populous—to match strides with our neighbors. They live alongside us; they who are filled with hope and with faith in themselves, we are filled with fear and with a lack of confidence in ourselves. From Governor Peterson on down through the legislature in the matter of education we have surrendered to "the White Spot"—knowing at the time that we surrender to the White Spot we gouge and dig for federal funds at every opportunity and we use it to cover up our own unwillingness to build and create for ourselves. We are in the "White Spot Doldrums"—it has in truth become Nebraska's state song—and while we sing, our neighbors march on.

★

We are losing population. Our young people are leaving us. One of the reasons they are leaving us, to talk with them, is that they do not care to live in a state of lost hope. We had six seats in the lower house of congress 30 years ago. We have four seats in the lower house of congress today—two less than we had 30 years ago—and only by the grace of God will we escape the loss of another seat in the 1950 census. The empire that was christened Nebraska territory, all 550 thousand square miles of it, later carved into six states, is pushing ahead while we are falling behind, falling behind with a leadership that preaches fear, a leadership that says nothing can be done beyond what is being done now. That is not the way our neighbors, portions of this same Nebraska territory, see it. They seem to think that not only can something be done, but they are doing it.

★

In the last year we have talked to a lot of people from all sections of Nebraska, from all walks of life. They do not always agree. But in this state from these talks we think we heard one strong, clear voice crying: Let's be done with the doldrums. Let's do something.

An inventory of the estate of L. L. Coryell, jr., was filed in Lancaster county court Wednesday.

Listed were approximately 2,100 shares of common stock, mostly in Coryell corporations, and a one-third interest in the partnership of L. L. Coryell and Son.

Also listed was a residence at 2850 Sheridan, jewelry and silverware valued at $2,000 and $38.58 in cash on hand. No value was placed on other personal property.

The young democrats of Lancaster county will hold a business meeting Wednesday night in room 1113 Sharp building. President Edwin Dosek will be in charge of the meeting.

Broad State Industrial Plan Advised

Nebraska industrial development should not be based entirely on agriculture, Dean R. M. Green of the University of Nebraska engineering college, told Lincoln realtors Wednesday noon at the chamber of commerce.

The industries should be spread over the entire state and process something of general utility which would sell on an international as well as national market, Dean Green explained.

The state's present industries which are the most stable sell on an international basis, and only one uses agricultural raw materials, the speaker said in referring to a panel survey.

Four Point Plan.

He outlined four considerations in the development of Nebraska industry:

1. The character of the Nebraska people has not been wholly recognized, but statistics show the state has superior workers and administrators.
2. Reserve electric power.
3. Adequate water—tthis will ultimately be the control point. In utiliz ing the underground water supply we must not use more than falls annually or we will hurt future generations."
4. Adequate transportation— a great many students graduating from the university enginering college are remaining the state, and they are among the best graduates. "I wish people would quit saying our best graduates are leaving the state—this is not true as statistics will show."

Bookstrom Low Bidder—H. R. Bookstrom Construction was the only firm bidding on a two block water main in Cotner boulevard from L to J. The Bookstrom bid of $2,528 opened Wednesday at city hall was under the engineer's estimate of $2,550. The main will supply new construction in the area.

Chiang Back In Battle

Predicts Third World War If China Is Lost

SHANGHAI — (AP) — Chiang Kai-shek today returned to the battle against communism, forecasting a third World war if China is lost.

His country, he said, would be the tinderbox and furnish the men for that war if the Chinese communists win.

The generalissimo pledged to share the hardships of his countrymen "on the brink of disaster." He said he could not disregard his responsibility at such a time.

The statement—his first since retiring from the presidency Jan. 21—was issued from Chikow, his ancestral home. But foreign and Chinese newspapers said he was back in Shanghai, soon perhaps to become another civil war battleground.

Soochow Scene Of Battle.

He spoke as director general of the kuomintang (government) party.

Communist forces swirled around Soochow (Wuhsien) where a critical battle raged only 50 miles to the west, as Chiang's statement was made public.

Chiang said the communists were seeking to "enslave the Chinese people to the cause of international communists by attempting to make all China the military base and source of manpower for the benefit of the communist plan for world domination."

Chiang promised full support to the government of Li, but pledged to "share the sufferings of my fellow countrymen." Thus he may have chosen this means of coming from retirement to lead China in her battle against communism.

The generalissimo said the reds by crossing the Yangtze had blundered into the same military errors that mired the Japanese in their conquest of China.

Sees Defeat for Reds.

The river crossing, he said, represents the "peak of communist military development." It will bring the reds "face to face with the tangling mass of military, political and economic problems which will eventually result in their downfall."

Nationalist sources insisted Soochow was still in their hands and that the communists had lost 5,000 men in the battle. Another report said advance red units had passed Soochow and were marching eastward on Kunshan.

Rail service between Shanghai and Hangchow had not been interrupted. Both seaports may become escape avenues for the nationalists.

At least two shiploads of nationalist soldiers and equipment sailed out of Shanghai today. Likely they were headed for Formosa where Generalissimo Chiang Kai-shek's followers have established a bastion.

Bird Blamed For Fire

LYNN, Mass.—(AP)—A bird was blamed today for "striking" a match that cause a $2,500 cottage fire.

Deputy Fire Chief James O'Neil said the bird evidently carried the match to its nest in the coping o fthe roof—and pecked on it until it burst into flame.

A Public Hearing

A flood of telegrams descended upon the Nebraska legislature at the start of the week. They seemed to come out of one community, largely, so the reporters said.

They accomplished their purpose apparently.

At a meeting of the legislative judiciary committee its members agreed to sponsor a bill which would take Nebraska out from under the provisions of the federal rent control act, come next fall.

There is a lot to be said on both sides of this question.

Throughout years of inflation only common honesty compels a statement that the owners of Nebraska rental properties, their taxes enormously increased, the cost of maintenance of these properties rising skyward, have taken it on the chin plenty. There is a lot to be said for the apartment or home renter. His costs have been no picnic.

Now, we assume, that in most Nebraska communities the pressure created by a housing shortage has subsided somewhat, if not entirely. The construction of new homes and new housing facilities has helped.

Before any action is taken, both sides should be given the opportunity for a thorough hearing, and that is exactly what is proposed. Governor Peterson seems to feel that controls are federal legislation and if they are dropped the action should be by the federal government. The rent control law passed by congress, extending controls, embodied a new idea, "home rule," which in practical effect tossed that political hot potato back to the city and state governments.

We are inclined to think that instead of statewide action it would be wiser to permit every Nebraska city to settle its own problem of continuing rent controls. There may be Nebraska cities which feel they need it; others which see no need of it.

Fortunate Blair

Blair, the county seat of Washington, enjoys a unique distinction to which Editor Reed O'Hanlon, jr., of The Blair Pilot directed attention last Friday, Arbor Day. He reminds his readers that the thoughtfulness and industry of Blair's pioneer settlers made it possible for the present generation to enjoy a "veritable forest." "These pioneers," he wrote, "on settling in Blair, planted the first trees, carried water in wagons from the Missouri river to see that they survived in drouth years . . . Today there are hundreds of stately 70-year-old maples and elms to mark their industry and foresight."

Some years ago in touring tree-covered Iowa we concluded that Hampton, with its mile-long avenue of venerable, massive elms is the most beautiful little city west of the Mississippi. That got an argument. For another argument we are taking Mr. O'Hanlon at his word and nominating his 70-year-old maples and elms as the handsomest asset any Nebraska city possesses. The contest is open to all comers.

It's Official Now

There was good news Wednesday when earlier unconfirmed reports that Russia is ready and willing to discontinue its Berlin blockade received confirmation from the American state department.

Britain, one of the three parties concerned, acted promptly.

Its foreign office announced that the British were willing to accept the Russian terms for lifting the blockade, and the British position has been conveyed to the United States government.

The details relative to the Russian conditions have not been made public at the time that this was written. But what we have here possibly is a rift in dark skies that have hung over the German capital for many months, a situation productive of irritation and tenseness between three great world powers. We can only say at this time that if the Russian offer is made in good faith, without the sacrifice of any fundamental American position, it should be accepted without delay.

Actually from the very beginning one of the most stupid moves Russia made in the conduct of its cold war against the western democracies was to impose the Berlin blockade. It could have been of value to Russia only if it succeeded in its purpose—that is, if it actually forced the allies, the United States and Britain, to pull up stakes, quit Berlin. It succeeded in nothing of this. It only sharpened America's determination to remain in the former German capital.

It provided the inspiration for an amazing demonstration of American resourcefulness and power because the Berlin airlift served notice on every country in Europe, including those back of the Iron Curtain, that the United States had the resources, the "know-how" to supply itself with food and fuel and all other necessities although put to extraordinary expense to do so. For months great flotillas of American planes, augmented by British airliners, have been taking care of the American and British forces and the German people within the two occupied zones of Berlin. It has been frightfully expensive, and at all times perilous but the job was done, and done to a frazzle.

The abandonment of the Berlin blockade could be the opening wedge in the development of better understanding between the United States and Russia.

Two Young Nebraskans

The Honors Day convocation at the University of Nebraska—an emphasis upon scholarship—must have been especially gratifying to young William L. Bade, and young Frederick Ware, Jr., both of Omaha. All that young Mr. Bade has accomplished is to compile a three and one-half year cumulative weighted grade average of 93 per cent, with young Mr. Ware, the son of the managing editor of The Omaha World-Herald, breathing heavily on his heels with a 92-plus average for the same period of time. Eleven other outstanding students were granted distinction for superior scholarship, which in the terms of the man on the street means 90 per cent. Young Mr. Bade is another of those poor boys, attending the state university on a scholarship, helping to finance his way by serving as an undergraduate teaching assistant. Young Mr. Ware in addition to a magnificent scholastic record has been a member of the Cornhusker track squad. There's nothing wrong with these youngsters. They are tops.

IRREVOCABLE STEPS

This is directed to the attention of the members of the Nebraska unicameral. Almost 40 years to the day, on April 2, 1909, a Nebraska newspaper had this to say about the action of an earlier Nebraska legislature in the expansion of normal school facilities:

"The purchase of the Wayne normal school by the legislature means that Nebraska is now definitely committed to the policy of scattering its normal school work far and wide over the state. INSTEAD OF BUILDING UP ONE OR TWO GREAT NORMAL SCHOOLS WE SHALL HAVE THREE OF THESE INSTITUTIONS, WITH A PROSPECT THAT ONE OR TWO MORE MAY BE CREATED IN THE NEAR FUTURE. (Two years later along came Chadron.) The value of this policy may be questioned, but the legislature in its wisdom has decided upon the scattering policy and experience shows that it is impossible for the state TO RETRACE ITS STEPS AFTER ONCE STARTING ON SUCH A ROAD. The taxpayers must make the best of the situation."

How true were those words written 40 years ago:

There are irrevocable decisions made by legislatures, decisions so far-reaching, so inexorable in their future effects.

This present legislature is committed to such a decision. It is now fully committed to the idea of converting four normals into four liberal arts colleges—a step which we are told involves no added tax burdens—a step which either involves added tax burdens or an inevitable depreciation of the liberal arts degrees offered in this state. Either in the years ahead we shall strengthen the teaching staffs—we shall expand courses of instruction in the liberal arts subjects—or failing, in the mistaken notion that no additional expense is involved, we shall cheapen the liberal arts degree. We know there are those who will sneer at that statement. We know there are those who belittle, and who sneer at education itself. But if it only took two years back in the early cycles of this century to demonstrate that once a "scattering policy" in normal education was embarked upon, a state quickly found it impossible to retrace its steps—an equally irrevocable decision, which is being kicked around loosely and recklessly today, will provide the proof that in less than 10 years Nebraska cannot build five liberal arts colleges without paying the fiddler.

We should be able to agree upon this, it would seem.

If the normals are to be converted into liberal arts colleges the degrees in liberal arts which those normals grant should involve exactly the same tax burden that training for a liberal arts degree at the University of Nebraska entails. Otherwise we defeat our purpose. We would have an expensive liberal arts degree and we would have a cheap liberal arts degree. Human nature, being what it is, that could not long endure. The normals will be justified in asking greatly increased appropriations over what they now get. What we will have in Nebraska education, then, is not orderly development, carefully arranged, resting on sound educational standards, but we have chaos and confusion. We will invite at each succeeding legislative session a "dog-eat-dog" competition for tax funds. We will have pulling and hauling, dissension and bitterness. We have each institution for itself, and we have the devil take the hindmost.

★

The long-range importance of this issue is not being overemphasized in those preceding sentences. We are setting the stage at this time with this departure from Nebraska educational tradition—a tradition that the normals shall train Nebraska's teachers—the University of Nebraska shall be built around the heart of a great liberal arts college, looking towards the foundation training for the professions. We are setting the stage now for endless conflict and added tax burdens, cleverly concealed at this time with soft words.

☆

The men who are leading the fight in this session should be willing to agree to this. If in their wisdom they authorize five liberal arts colleges in Nebraska, then we hope that two years hence, or 10 years hence they'll not be back here expressing horror at the size of the tax bill. They will have created it and having created it then it should be the attitude of every Nebraskan that when these normals need additional money for liberal arts staff expansion, for more courses of study, for the steps that mark educational development in every state of the union, they will have the grace not to growl about the cost. They created it.

OFF THE RECORD

By ED REED

"Perhaps you'd have a better chance of making your varsity letter in some other event, Herman."

The DAILY WASHINGTON MERRY-GO-ROUND

TRADE MARK REGISTERED

By DREW PEARSON

WASHINGTON — It wasn't officially recorded, but New Hampshire's Senator Styles Bridges recently struck a sharp blow at the bipartisan foreign policy by demanding that the G.O.P. take its own stand on foreign affairs—particularly in China.

He shot the challenge squarely at Michigan's Senator Arthur Vandenberg, the Mr. Big of the bipartisan foreign policy during a secret meeting of the republican policy committee.

The debate got so heated that at one point Vandenberg snorted: "Now this is within these four walls. There aren't many here, and if this appears in Drew Pearson's column, I won't have too many to check with."

• • •

Bridges called upon the republicans to stop echoing "Me, too" to everything the administration does and to focus a "little sunlight on the mistakes and questionable policies" of the democrats.

PEARSON tells of an off-the-record clash between Sen. Styles Bridges, and Sen. Arthur Vandenberg (above). Bridges struck a sharp blow at bipartisan foreign policy by demanding that the republicans take their own stand on foreign affairs, particularly in China.

He charged that China was being forfeited to the communists and he urged Vandenberg to take a stand on this and demand a review of our China policy. When America realizes its mistake, Bridges argued, then the republicans could pin the blame upon the democrats.

Vandenberg retorted sharply that it was easier for Bridges to snipe against our foreign policy because he didn't have the responsibility as G.O.P. foreign-policy spokesman. Vandenberg admitted that the picture is dark for the Chinese anti-communists, but argued that it was too late to interfere without jeopardizing the chances of salvaging what is left. By intervening now, the United States wouldn't save China but might endanger future relations, Vandenberg argued. He also pointed out that the corrupt governing clique that runs the central government soaks up most U. S. aid intended for the Chinese people.

• • •

Bridges snapped back that members of the State department were sabotaging our foreign policy and demanded that pro-communists be flushed out of the service.

At this, Massachusetts' lean Leverett Saltonstall raised a cautioning hand, suggested it was unfair to question the motives of diplomatic personnel.

"If you had a general who commanded an army and lost a battle through incompetence, you would remove him," crackled Bridges. "If he lost by conspiring with the enemy, you would court-martial and probably shoot him. But the state department loses country after country and all you do is promote them."

Vandenberg said he didn't know of any pro-communists in the state department. Ohio's Senator Robert Taft suggested, however, that the people underneath are often biased and don't give the people on top a true picture.

Tempers flared up at the height of the debate, but cooled off by the time the meeting adjourned.

• • •

Ohio's statuesque Senator John Bricker has been posing as the great champion of the Negro by demanding that segregation be outlawed in all public housing projects.

But what the public didn't realize is that Bricker toned down his own anti-segregation amendment, the minute it conflicted with the real estate lobby.

Bricker's original anti-segregation amendment would have cut off federal funds, including FHA loans, for any segregated housing progect. But when the real estate boys saw this, they realized Bricker would cut off one of their most lucrative sources of Money—loans from the federal housing administration. So they hotfooted it to Bricker's office and had him change his amendment so that it abolished segregation for public housing, but not FHA-financed housing.

NOTE—Bricker's real motive was to inject civil rights into the housing debate so it would turn the Southern vote against public housing.

Only one important committee hearing at this session of congress has been chairmanned by a republican — Senator Baldwin of Connecticut who presides over the Malmedy trial investigation. Baldwin is one of the ablest and most fair-minded members of the senate, but there is an interesting backstage story behind his appointment.

It results from the fact that Maryland's dapper Senator Tydings wanted to euchre the probe of the army's court-martial away from his democratic colleague from North Carolina, swallow-tailed Clyde Hoey.

Tydings appeared to believe that American officers were justified in using brutality and torture to wring confessions from ex-German storm troopers who allegedly took part in the Malmedy massacres during the battle of the Bulge. Tydings also claimed jurisdiction for his armed services committee — though only after Hoey had ordered his special investigating committee to look into the case. Previously, Tydings had flatly refused to investigate; then changed his mind after learning of Hoey's interest.

Fearing that Tydings would whitewash the brass hats, Hoey suggested turning the investigation over to a joint committee, made up of members from the armed services, judiciary and expenditures committees.

This started talks between the two that were still proceeding when suddenly Tydings pulled a surprise announcement that his committee would go ahead with its own investigation, and he appointed Senator Baldwin, republican, to head the probe.

The payoff is that Baldwin's law partner, Dwight F. Fanton, helped the army prosecute the Malmedy defendants.

THE HOWL FOR ROADS.

Lincoln, Neb.

To the editor of The Lincoln Star: Almost everyone remembers how the governor and the road department personnel have been maligned for months because of the condition of our roads, especially the rural roads. People in boots and big hats come down to Lincoln demanding that something be done to get the farmer out of the mud. The gas tax bill came up this forenoon and every attempt that was made for the rural roads was voted down. No one but the introducer of it being heard in the Yes column. The legislature would keep right on taking money away from the towns and cities to build county roads, tax the other fellow and not a red cent for farmer's roads. My advice to these people who have been howling about their county road conditions is to stop their palaver and not spend any more money coming to Lincoln to complain. I just wonder if there are not any people besides the farmers who need some consideration.

WHAT PRICE LENIENCY.

Lincoln, Neb.

To the editor of The Lincoln Star: The highlight of my visit to your splendid city was the letter of Mr. John T. Peck: "Why the Leniency?" I appreciate a fighter who sticks to his guns, come hell or high water. Just how many remember Pearl Harbor can be counted on the finger of your hands and perhaps not that many—none in Washington. The Europeans have taken over Washington and before they're through they will have wrecked the whole American system of government, torn asunder the only remnant of liberty existing in the world today. The crime committed against democracy are not concocted in the lowly abodes of law-abiding common citizenry. The only ones who are scared of their own shadows and the monster of communism are the fascists who have infiltrated their doctrines into the minds of Washington dignitaries.

Mrs. Josephine Crisler's article: "I Saved the Panama Canal"; (SEP, April 23) is ample proof of that, showing as it does to what depth our body politic had descended.

They say that we are doing things bigger and better nowadays; I agree entirely in that we are getting to be bigger and better suckers right along. We have never learned, much less profited, by the mistakes of the past which have culminated into a second world war. We are at it again on a greater scale out of which will rise bigger and more powerful nazi armies to destroy the last remnant of civilization. What price leniency?

WHAT IS HELL?

Lincoln, Neb.

To the editor of The Lincoln Star: In one of his sermons Dr. Harry Emerson Fosdick makes this statement: "We who claim to be intelligent have given up belief in hell." If by that Dr. Fosdick means a literal, material fire and brimstone, I agree with him. When Jesus spoke of a place where the worm dieth not and the fire is not quenched, He undoubtedly used metaphorical language. It is the soul that commits sin and the soul is immaterial and therefore cannot be affected by the gnawing of a material worm and a material fire. But if Dr. Fosdick means there is no hell at all anywhere, I certainly disagree with him. There most certainly is a hell. So what is hell? An awakened guilty conscience, a subconscious memory that can't forget the past, remorse for a misspent life is hell. That is the worm that dieth not and the fire that is not quenched. I would advise, with Pope Pius, every preacher to preach a sermon on hell once in a while, but don't insult your hearers with a material hellfire. If you do you will do more harm than good, but if you preach hell as I think it is, no intelligent person will be offended but may take warning and change his life. The late Robert G. Ingersoll might have been a preacher of the gospel instead of an agnostic if his father, a preacher, had used tact and common sense. Young Bob was naughty one day and his father said: "If you are naughty you will go to hell when you die and burn forever in a furnace of fire." And Bob replied: "If that is the kind of God we have I am against Him from now on," and he became an apostle of agnosticism. If some fundamentalist should challenge my interpretation of hell, let me remind him that Dwight L. Moody, who was cer-

WASHINGTON CALLING
by
MARQUIS CHILDS

WASHINGTON — It is now nearly three months since President Truman sent to the senate the name of Mon Wallgren to be chairman of the national security resources board. The senate armed services committee, by a majority of one, voted to keep the Wallgreen nomination in the committee, which means that the full senate cannot pass on it.

Marquis Childs

This has stirred the president's resentment. He has got his Missouri stubbornness up and, in effect, he has told those who inquire that he hasn't the slightest intention of withdrawing the Wallgren nomination. In fact, he will leave it before the senate until the paper it is written on rots away.

• • •

The president feels, according to his close associates, that the action of the armed services committee is not merely unfair but perhaps unconstitutional. When the law provides that a nomination shall be confirmed by the senate, it means the whole senate and not merely a handful of men on one committee.

It seems to me that this complaint has genuine merit. Whatever one may think of the Wallgren appointment, and I happen to think very little of it, the whole senate has a constitutional right to approve or reject it. Instead, six republicans on the armed services committee, plus one democrat, Sen. Harry F. Byrd of Virginia, have set up a road block to hold the nomination back.

In recent years we have heard the executive denounced over and over again for encroaching on the legislative branch of government. But in the matter of presidential appointments it begins to look as though the congress were determined by one means or another to sabotage the president's appointive power.

• • •

Another instance is the appointment of John Carson to be a member of the federal trade commission. Before Carson could present his views to a senate committee, a well-planned smear campaign was directed against him with the connivance of certain senators.

The national security resources board has been without a fulltime chairman for nearly four months, since the resignation of Arthur M. Hill, who was the first head of the board. John Steelman, one of the president's advisers, has been acting chairman but he has been able to give comparatively little time to the job.

During this period the staff of the board has pretty well deteriorated. Most of the top officials named by Hill have resigned and they have not been replaced.

• • •

Kenneth D. Johnson has resigned as general counsel. Vice-chairman Reginald Gillmore has resigned. So has E.T. Grether, director of the economic management division, who has gone back to the University of California as dean of the graduate school of business.

The inquiring reporter is told that the board's remaining 250 employes—this includes stenographers and messengers—are still working on planning and coordinating other government departments for a war mobilization plan. But without any active leadership at the top, it must be pretty academic.

When Wallgren was appointed, Steelman named to the board as a $50-a-day specialists two men who had been associated with Wallgren when he was governor of the state of Washington. These men, Jack Gorrie and Jack Ballew, stayed about six weeks. Then their initial contracts ran out and they departed. Ballew, who had been with the plasterers' union before he became Wallgren's budget officer, seemed to officials of the board distinctly unhappy in his role as $50-a-day expert.

• • •

A former Wallgren associate, John Davis, is still with the board. He is said to be working on task force and organizational problems.

One reason for the resentment felt at the White House is the belief that those who set out to block Wallgren deliberately overemphasized the importance of the job. It was built up to tremendous proportions and then Wallgren was put alongside it and failed to measure up.

But as I see it, either it is a vitally important assignment—evolving an over-all plan for mobilization integrating business, government and every element for possible war—or it is a $14,000 a year sinecure. If it is the former, then Wallgren's qualifications are dubious, or certainly they have not been made clear. If it is the latter, then the job had better be abolished. But the senate is evading its duty in failing to pass on the Wallgren nomination.

Bill Giving Aid Levy 1st Rights O.K'd

By Health Committee: Provides Up To One Half Mill For Relief

The legislative committee on health Tuesday reported out to general file LB 536, providing that before any other levy, each county in the state shall first levy a tax sufficient to enable the county board to carry out its duties with regard to old age assistance and aid to dependent children.

The bill further provides that in no case shall this levy exceed one-half a mill. The amount of the levy is to be based upon estimates of costs made by the state board of control and supplied to each county by June 1 of each year.

Kill Tag Bill.

Meanwhile, the agriculture committee killed LB 532, providing for the sale of tags by the state department of agriculture to defray the cost of seed inspection and analysis by the state. Cost of the tags, according to the bill, would have been based on the size of the bag and the seed involved.

Reported out to general file by the budget committee Tuesday was LB 534, setting up a board of inquiry and review to determine eligibility of persons seeking admittance to the state supported soldiers' and sailors' home at Grand Island.

The board of inquiry and review is to be made up of a representative of each veterans' organization in Nebraska recognized by the department of veterans' affairs, and a representative of the department.

The measure also provides for a closer check of the eligibility of persons applying for admittance to the home.

Defeat Move Close Unwed MothersHome

But A Floor Fight Now Looms To End Haven At Milford

The legislative budget committee Tuesday shouted down a proposed bill that would have abolished the Milford Industrial home for unwed mothers.

The action came when Sen. Lester Anderson, Aurora, attempted to have a bill recommended for introduction by the committee which would repeal the sections of the statutes providing for the state-supported home. He was seconded by Sen. O. H. Person, Wahoo.

However, Sen. Anderson said the bill would be brought up on the floor of the legislature despite the committee's action. He did not say how this would come about, however.

Loudest in his denunciation of the bill was Sen. Fay Wood, Seward, who queried, "Why don't we turn the capitol over to the Salvation Army too? They can operate it cheaper than we can.

Sen. Anderson's action came about after a Salvation Army official appeared before the committee last month and suggested that the state close the Milford home and contract with his organization to care for the girls at the Booth Memorial hospital at Omaha.

Hit $100,000 Cost.

"Do we want to spend twice as much money as we need to, or spend half as much and send the girls to Omaha?" asked Sen. Anderson. "Do we want to deprive the Salvation Army or continue to spend $100,000 a biennium needlessly?"

When Sen. John Callan, Odell, remarked that Nebraska is the only state that maintains such an institution, Sen. Wood said, "We should be proud of that fact rather than ashamed of it."

Sen. Callan, who favors the closing of the institution, remarked that if a charitable organization is willing to take care of the cases, the state should not attempt to compete.

Sen. Wood maintained, however, that the Salvation Army is interested in the move only because it can make a profit on the contracts. His stand was agreed on by several other members of the committee.

The Salvation Army official told the committee his hospital handled maternity cases at an average cost of $300, while during the last biennium it his cost the taxpayers $539 for every baby born by an unwed mother at the state home.

Sen. Victor Anderson, Lincoln, suggested that instead of closing the home some economies could be made that would cut the cost to the state. He suggested squeezing the home down to just the hospital area.

The budget request by the state board of control for the Milford home for the 1949-51 biennium is $95,689. The home was allotted $88,462 during the present biennium.

Plans For "Some Kind Park Program" Asked By Senators

. . . From "Unenthusiastic" Game Commission

By ARCH DONOVAN

The legislative spotlight turned again on the state game, forestation and parks commission Tuesday as the miscellaneous appropriation committee sought answers as to what the commission is doing for state parks.

Repeated prodding, plus a barrage of suggestions, brought forth from the unenthusiastic commission a promise that it would submit to the committee a list of the most needed units at four parks together with estimated costs. The commission will also estimate costs for preparing master plans for two parks where no plans have been made.

Three Reasons Given.

The game commission gave the impression of constantly having their guard up on park improvement, although they freely told of activities at their own sponsored recreation areas. Reasons advanced for failure to improve parks included:

1. Budget requests in years past have been cut to mere maintenance requests so no improvements were included.

2. The 10 per cent authorized for parks from license fees has not been used in fear of losing federal funds for game activities.

3. Organized "sportsmen" are watching and will raise "cain" if money is diverted from game activities to parks.

The legislative committee in urging that the commission provide some kind of park program for the state said they were an economy minded committee and advised the commission to also be economical in operations. They asked, however, that the commission "go as far as you can with game license fees to provide parks for the kids."

It was brought out that the legislature has appropriated from tax funds from 1937 to 1948 the following amounts for parks: Arbor Lodge $54,814, Chadron $76,180, Stolley $43,155, Ponca $36,842, Victoria Springs $32,726, Niobrara $28,566 and Ft. Kearney $18,025.

Individual senators, at request of interested citizens, introduced bills this year calling for appropriations for parks as follows: Chadron $178,000, Ft. Kearney $106,800, Ponca $75,000, Niobrara $17,000.

The senators pointed out that at Chadron and Ponca, swimming pools had been asked to provide recreation at summer camps of youth organizations. At Niobrara, old military barracks have been purchased for the park, but funds are needed to convert them into cabins.

At Ft. Kearny it was explained $18,000 has been earmarked for the park but only about half expended including $3,600 for planning. The commission asserted that $9,000 additional would be spent before July 1 for roads, shrubbery, etc.

Legislators complained that boosters for parks came to the legislature with pleas for improvement rather than first working out plans and having recommendations come from the responsible commission.

Present budget requests, the commission said, were reduced $25,000 to $110,000 which will scarcely provide maintenance.

All of the bills seeking funds for state parks are still being held in committee.

Corrupt Practice Penalties Eased By Legislature

Legislature passed and sent to the governor Tuesday legislation changing penalties for violation of prohibition against political campaign contributions by corporations.

The law, if signed by the governor, will provide for penalties of from $100 to $1,000 for convictions on first offense. At present the penalty is a flat $1,000 fine.

Upon conviction of a second offense, fines of between $500 and $2,000 can be levied as compared to the flat $2,000 as now provided by law.

Authority to prosecute such cases still remains with the attorney general's office.

Bills passed on final reading Tuesday:

LB 427, establishing qualifications of county superintendent of schools.

He unhesitatingly proceeded to the head of his platoon and, as the hostile force came within range, personally spearheaded a vigorous attack which forced the enemy to withdraw. Pursuing the retreating Germans relentlessly, Lt. Hebenstreit, far in advance of his men, boldly forced the surrender of two Mark IV tanks. While leading a charge upon a third tank, he was struck by direct short range fire and was fatally wounded."

'Church, Medicine Must Co-operate On Youths' Problems'

The need for closer co-operation between the church and the medical profession in solving the problem of juvenile delinquency was stressed Tuesday by Rabbi Samuel Baron of the South street temple.

Speaking at the Rotary club meeting at the Cornhusker hotel, Rabbi Baron said co-operation between the church and the medical profession is essential because much juvenile delinquency can be traced to mental and emotional defects in personality.

A. F. "Tony" Myers of the Y.M.C.A., told the group of the work of the Y.M.C.A. In Lincoln, 1,000 boys under the age of 18 belong to the Y.M.C.A.

He also discussed the case histories of several boys the Y.M.C.A. has helped in finding a constructive place in society.

Major Bert Locker of the Salvation Army said the Salvation Army in Lincoln came in contact with 50,000 youths during the past year through its various activities.

Guard Building Needs Approval 99-Year Lease

. . . On Ballot May 3

Brig. Gen. Guy N. Henninger today received final plans and specifications for the proposed $106,224 motor vehicle storage building the Nebraska National Guard will construct at the Lincoln municipal airport if Lincoln voters approve a 99-year lease.

Gen. Henninger said the construction of the building depends upon whether the voters approve a 99-year lease to the guard of space at the airport. At present the guard has a 25-year lease on the property, but the National Guard bureau will not allow the construction unless the state has a long-term lease, he said.

The issue will be put to the voters at the May 3 election.

Gen. Henninger said the 312 by 52 foot building will be constructed of concrete, cement blocks or brick. If built it will house the vehicles of the five National Guard units in Lincoln.

Geneva Board Upheld In License Denial

The state liquor control commission Tuesday upheld the action of the Geneva village board in denying the application of Leo J. Rush for an on and off sale beer license at Geneva.

A public hearing on the application was held by the commission on April 21.

In other action, the commission overruled a protest to an application by John Claassen, Orchard, for a package liquor license and granted the license after a public hearing.

Talent Show Presented By N.E. Students

Rev. Pierron, 74, Dies At Boys Town

BOYS TOWN, Neb.— (AP) — The Rev. Joseph Pierron, 74, a priest in the Milwaukee archdiocese until his retirement last summer, died Tuesday at Boys Town.

Father Pierron was pastor of Our Lady of Angels church in Armstrong, Wis., at the time of his retirement. Since coming to Boys Town he has served as chaplain for the sisters convent and has done some teaching in the Boys Town school music department. He was an authority on liturgical music and had studied both in Europe and in this country.

Father Pierron said mass Tuesday morning and then went to breakfast. Shortly after breakfast he was stricken with a cerebral hemorrhage and died, a Boys Town spokesman said.

Whooping Crane Is Expected To Travel Through Nebraska

. . . One Observed At Elm Creek Last Month

CORPUS CHRISTI, Tex.—(AP)—Word is being awaited from Nebraska on the possible arrival there of the whooping crane, a stately bird which is getting close to extinction.

The whooping crane is a huge white bird with a rusty-red head. Each spring it heads for mysterious nesting grounds in Canada, which ornithologists have not been able to locate.

In tight family groups, 28 cranes began taking to the air from the Arkansas game refuge near here April 13. In a few days only four were left—a pair in captivity, a cripple and the cripple's mate.

Recent records showed that there were only three others living. One was at Gothenburg, Neb., one in a Louisiana zoo and one in the London zoo.

Warden Charles A. Keefer of the Arkansas refuge said today he was awaiting word from Thomas E. Orson of the University of Nebraska, Lincoln. Orson was supposed to watch for the cranes on the Platte river.

Vance Disagrees.

At the Nebraska game and forestation commission offices, Lloyd P. Vance, game supervisor, disagreed with the Associated Press report.

Vance stated the period for whooping crane migration through the state is past. One crane was observed near Elm Creek on about March 20. He added that the crane from the Gothenburg refuge had been shipped to the Texas refuge last year.

However, Vance said that just where in Canada the cranes nest is still a number one mystery in the bird world.

NEW YORK—(AP)—The Dun & Bradstreet wholesale food price index this week declined one cent to $5.67—which brought it to just one cent higher than the 28-month low of last February 8.

A year ago the index was 16.1 per cent higher at $6.76. The figure represents the total cost at wholesale of a pound each of 31 foods in general use.

Higher in wholesale price this week were wheat, rye, beef, lard, coffee, cottonseed oil, cocoa, eggs and lambs.

Lower were corn, oats, barley, hams, bellies, potatoes, steers and hogs.

aid to Israel. This made Truman so mad he ordered the U. S. representative to the United Nations, Warren Austin, not to object when the United Nations pigeonholed Israel's application for U.N. membership.

Warren's silence shocked the Israeli because they were counting on wholehearted American support for their cause. As a result, President Weizmann is trying to patch things up during personal conferences with President Truman.

GARDEN GLANCES
WITH THE MOON

"There is no unbelief;
Whoever plants a seed beneath the sod
And waits to see it push away the clod,
He trusts in God."

By CECILE PARRISH SWINGLE.

The moon entered the earthy and semi-fruitful sign, Taurus, this morning. Early tomorrow morning there will be a new moon and another first quarter will begin. Then again it is time to plant those things that produce their yield above the soil, like lettuce, corn, cucumber, all herbs, beans, tomatoes, etc., and all flower seeds.

Friday night at 9:47 the moon will enter the airy and barren sign, Gemini, and early Monday morning it will enter the watery and fruitful sign, Cancer. If you wish to plant by the moon's signs then do plant the above seeds Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday until 1 p. m., while the moon is in Cancer, for it is the most fruitful sign of all. It is a water sign and particularly good for vegetables.

Peas Require Attention.

Laxton's Pride and Little Marvel are low-growing peas that do well in a city garden. About two weeks after planting all peas require some attention. You must hill up both sides of the rows to support the small plants. Save your prunings of shrubs and trees and use the branching twigs as support for the vines. The heavy ends are stuck into the ground along the row and as the vines grow the tendrils will cling to them. Some experienced gardeners even use a support of chicken wire while others prefer stakes at 6-foot intervals and rows of soft string for them to twine on as we do sweet peas. They all are good methods, the ideas is to keep the vines off the ground so the pods will hang free as they mature.

While I think of it, many people are turning more and more to practically the same method for growing cucumbers. That is, they build a trellis for them to twine on In a small garden where space is at a premium the trellis method is an obvious advantage, to say nothing of the more abundant yield.

Herbs Decorative.

Each year I write of Oakleaf and Bibb lettuce and their superior qualities. There is a bronze oakleaf and deer tongue lettuce now to join their ranks. I hope that you can find them this year in the seed stores; in other years I have purchased the seeds from catalogs.

Just to mention herbs makes my heart sing. They are such decorative things in one's garden. All shades of green, various and intricate leaf shapes, and most of them with dainty florets that are darlings in miniature bouquets and arrangements. The flowers of borage are forget-me-not blue and the young buds first show pink just as do forget-me-nots. Sweet basil and sweet marjoram and thyme should be in everyone's garden, however small, as should tarragon, parsley, rosemary, Florence fennel and dill. Used fresh they are wonderful in salads as I seem to tell you each spring. And their fragrance, some spicy, some sweet, others pungent. Sow seeds of thyme along a garden path. Thyme vulgaris is almost evergreen in our climate and grows 10 to 12 inches high in ball-like bunches. I can smell its fragrance now just talking about it.

So until Friday, when we'll talk of flowers.

UNEARNED TAX-FREE WEALTH.

Alexandria, Neb.

To the editor of The Lincoln Star: If one finds a thousand dollar bill on the street we think he should make a sincere effort to find the rightful owner. Today thousands of owners of Nebraska farm land find themselves five thousand, fifty thousand, and, a good many, one hundred thousand dollars richer due to the entirely unearned increase in the value of the land they hold. It is a depressing fact that scarcely any of them are unhappy about it. The worse ones exhibit an extremely smug, cat-that-ate-the-canary attitude.

This increase in wealth of the landholders, due to the quirk in the income tax laws that says you don't have a profit unless you cash it, is altogether income tax free. This huge rise in the price of farm land prevents almost any young man with only training and experience and ability to farm from attempting to buy a farm with the idea of paying for it by farming it.

The legislature and governor should do something about this evil situation. This unearned wealth does not belong to the holders. It is too difficult to locate the persons it rightfully belongs to. Therefore it is a highly proper subject for public taxation. A ten per cent royalty tax on wheat and meat and on any farm product shipped out of the state would get about half of this morally unattached wealth. A twenty per cent tax would get about all of it. This legislature, filled with landlords, could astonish the world by passing such a tax bill.

RICHARD DILL.

Note: Mr. Dill, of course, is assailing a hallowed American institution when he insists that the acrement in land values be taxed.

Muscular Chorines, Humor Mixed In Kosmet Klub Show

. . . Capacity "First Night" Crowd

The annual spring Kosmet klub show performed the first half of its two-day stand before a capacity audience at the Nebraska theatre Tuesday night.

The men's dramatic group at the University of Nebraska presented an all-male musical comedy titled "Let's Change the Subject."

The play and words to the music were written by Jack Solomon, Omaha, a student at the university, and the show was produced by George Randol, director of Lincoln's Circlet theatre.

An athletic flavor was added to the production with the performance of five Husker gridders, Arden Means, Jim Godfrey, Bob Schneider, Bob Mullins and Charlie Toogood formed a chorus. They were attired in nurses costume.

Bill Mickle, who played the heroine Fatima, did a very good job of singing in a falsetto voice.

Those Safety Pins.

The vehicle for the singing and clowning concerns the question of "What happened to the Prince's safety pins?" It takes three acts for Clemen Schmatlee (Frank Wright), England's prime minister, and Cocker Spaniel Snootful (Don Veta), ace detective of Scotland yard, to recover those precious items.

In the course of the action the play has an excuse to present a crack squad of ROTC cadets, the football players dressed as nurses, and a chorus of harem girls.

Bob Baum, who as the Sultan is plagued by 148 wives, played his part very well. Fred Golan, who played a man described as being "very apelike in appearance and probably the original missing link," looked the part described.

Johnny Cox's orchestra supplied the music for the evening of entertainment.

One more performance of the play will be given at 8 p. m., Wednesday at Lincoln high's auditorium.

Miller President State Fire Chiefs

GRAND ISLAND, Neb.—(AP)—Z. E. Miller, Fremont, was elected president at a meeting of the Nebraska Fire Chiefs' association here Monday night in conjunction with 1949 Nebraska state fire school. He will succeed E. P. Feaster, Lincoln.

Other officers elected were R. H. Wolff, Norfolk, vice president; Russell D. Salak, Schuyler, secretary; and H. B. Branting, Stromsburg, and John Hilderbrand, Ogallala, executive committee.

The fire chiefs and other firemen attending the school passed a resolution expressing their disappointment at the legislature's failure to pass LB 83 the fireworks bill "particularly since about 70 per cent of Nebraska's towns have anti-fireworks ordinances."

—New Farm Program—

'TRIAL RUN' ON PORK IS PROBABLE

. . To Test Brannan Plan

WASHINGTON—(AP) — The administration got bi-partisan backing today behind its request for immediate authority to make a "trial run" in the hog market with its proposed new farm program.

If congress approves, and hog prices continue to drop, this could mean:

1. Cheaper pork chops, ham and bacon for the consumer.

2. A government-guaranteed hog price for farmers, probably at about $16.50 per hundredweight.

Chairman Cooley (D-NC) of the house agriculture committee said Secretary of Agriculture Brannan is preparing legislation to authorize quick application of the new farm program principle to hogs. He said it will be given top priority.

Hope Indicates Support.

"I think I will support it and I think congress will approve it," Cooley said.

Rep. Hope of Kansas, senior agriculture committee republican, told reporters he, too, expects to support the legislation. Otherwise he said, the government might find itself with great stores of spoiling meat.

The present law requires the government to purchase hogs, alive or in packing houses, to remove surpluses, so as to maintain a support price of about $16.50 a hundredweight. Prices are still above this support level but Brannan told the committee he expects the government will have to start supports of hogs soon.

Lake McConaughy's Recreation Traffic Hits New High Mark

OGALLALA, Neb.—(AP)—Lake McConaughy recreation traffic hit a new high for the season Sunday when the number of visitors at the lake ran well into four figures.

Bait-vending establishments did a flourishing business and other concessions reported the first "rush" of the season.

Boat owners are showing a lot of activity as they prepare for the season. The Ogallala Boat club's caretaker service begins Sunday, May 1. The club is negotiating with the Tri-County Public Power and Irrigation district for an adjoining bay which would permit doubling of the dock facilities.

Ritchie Opposes Medical Proposal

OMAHA— (AP) —Former state democratic Chairman William Ritchie yesterday declared "policicians with pull will be the only real beneficiaries of the medical health insurance bill now before congress."

Ritchie made public a letter of protest against the bill he said he is sending to Rep. Eugene O'Sullivan (D-Neb.)

Ritchie termed the proposed bill "extravagent and inefficient," and declared it would result in a regimentation of the medical profession, putting patients on "a mass production basis, which is devastating to the morale of both doctors and patients."

Monday the Omaha Bar association went on record in opposition to "any system of compulsory sickness insurance designed for national bureaucratic control." The resolution instead endorsed "a program that will provide the necessities of good health, including medical care, administered at local levels." The Omaha Woman's club also okayed a resloution condemning compulsory health plans now before congress.

Drop Predicted In This Year's Farm Net Income

Nebraska farmers' net income for 1949 is likely to be "considerable less than last year," according to L. F. Snipes, farm management specialist at the University of Nebraska.

Snipes said that prices farmers receive for their products have been declining for sometime while their costs have gone down only slightly, and the trend is expected to continue the rest of this year. He predicted that farmers' cash receipts from marketings in 1949 may be about 10 per cent less than 1948. But, he said, little change in the volume of farm marketings is expected on the basis of present information.

The farm management specialist said any decline in total cash receipts will be primarily the result of lower average prices, and on the whole, farmers' total production costs are not likely to be down more than five per cent. Corn prices, he pointed out, are likely to be down somewhat more than prices of livestock and animal products.

Both Sides Given Additional Time In Mid-State Case

GRAND ISLAND, Neb.—(AP)—District Judge William F. Spikes has granted additional time to both sides after a hearing on the Nebraska Mid-State Reclamation district's action for a declaratory judgment.

He gave the defendants two weeks in which to file a brief in support of their theory and then granted the plaintiff an additional 10 days in which to file a reply.

The district is the plaintiff in the action to determine the constitutionality of LB 350, the law under which the district was set up. Defendants are Hall, Merrick and Buffalo counties, the state department of roads and irrigation and the individuals living in the three counties.

Monday's proceedings served to establish a court record of the background and organization of the district.

Lincoln Youths Are Involved In Kansas Robbery

WELLINGTON, Kas.—(AP)—A 15-year-old Lincoln, Neb., boy has been committed to a Kansas industrial school for the $10 country lane robbery of a Wellington taxi driver.

He is Milton McClellen, who pleaded guilty before probate Judge C. E. Russell to charges of robbery and assault to commit robbery. He was committed to the industrial school at Topeka for an indefinite term.

Gene Bennett, 17, who also told officers he was from Lincoln, was arraigned before Justice of The Peace A. L. Chase, was charged on the same counts as McClellen. He was returned to county jail when unable to post $1,000 bond pending a preliminary hearing May 9.

Judge Russell said a Nebraska juvenile home, from which McClellen admitted escaping, approved the court's action.

The youths were arrested Sunday on complaint of Andy Craig, the taxi driver.

Court Session Is Marked By Tears

BEATRICE, Neb.—(AP)—Judges sometimes give the order to "clear the courtroom." In this case, a .38-caliber tear gas shell had virtually the same effect.

Judge C. B. Ellis had acepted a guilty plea from a defendant. He asked the man if he had anything to say.

Just then Sheriff Ned Maxwell turned in his chair to talk to a newsman. As he did so, a tear gas shell in his pocket exploded, filling the air with gas.

The hearing was held up while the courtroom windows were opened and the gas escaped.

When the session resumed, the defendant, James Goodlett, 24, of Lawrenceburg, Ky., was sentenced to the reformatory at Lincoln for a term of one to one and a half years on a bad check charge.

Proposed Auditorium Must Be Located 15th, N

Attorneys Say Unless A New Vote Taken

Voters Are Asked To Increase Building Fund To $2,450,000

(On next Tuesday, May 3, the voters of Lincoln will pass on a proposal to raise $1,500,000 by a bond issue to be used with $950,000 already approved to build a city auditorium.

In order to give the voters a clearer picture of the issue and the facts that surround it, The Lincoln Star tonight presents the first of a series of three articles on the Auditorium Proposal.)

By DALE HOAGLAN.

The voters Tuesday will say 'yes' or 'no' to a proposition authorizing the city to issue $1,500,000 in bonds for a city auditorium.

In this and two succeeding articles, The Lincoln Star will present some of the facts and arguments which seem to tie the new bond issue to the previous one as to site, arguments advanced for and against proposed locations, a description of the building as now designed, and a background sketch of existing bonds and the proposed ones.

$950,000 Voted.

One thing must be made plain at the beginning. The auditorium will be built at Fifteenth and N unless a later vote removes that specification from the charter amendment authorizing the present bonds.

Although the new bond issue contains no mention of location, certain factors tie the new $1,500,000 to the $950,000 currently held for construction of the building. First, no building of the type contemplated, a combined theater and sports arena, could be built for either $950,000 or $1,500,000. The two sums would have to be used together.

Several prominent attorneys consulted agree that the phrase "in addition to" in the proposed charter amendment authorizing the bonds ties them legally to the existing bonds. "In addition to the power and authority elsewhere in this charter provided, and in addition to the bonds heretofore authorized for such purpose . . ." is the opening sentence of the proposed amendment.

History of Fight.

On May 2, 1939, the voters authorized the city to levy a tax not to exceed $75,000 per year for 10 years beginning in September, 1940. This first charter amendment had two purposes: the opening, widening and improving of Fifteenth street from K to R, and the acquiring of a site and erecting a public auditorium on Fifteenth street between K and R.

Also, the city could issue bonds for the anticipated $750,000 maximum revenue which could be produced by the levy.

The auditorium committee submitted a budget totaling $900,000 for the construction of and acquiring of land for the building, but with no provision for opening Fifteenth street.

Second Vote.

May 6, 1941, a second charter amendment repealing the first was approved. The new amendment authorized a tax of $75,000 per year for 20 years for the same purposes. It was retroactive to September, 1940.

This new amendment could produce a maximum of $1,500,000, $300,000 of which could be used for the Fifteenth street project. Bonds could be issued for an amount not exceeding 80 per cent of the total of the levy authorized—$1,200,000.

Further, if collections were insufficient to meet the bonds and interest as they became due, the council could levy additional amounts to meet them. Five per cent of the total bonds were to become due annually, but the first bond was to become due two years after issue. It's a lot more complicated than we can indicate here.

Three Funds.

Because one levy had already been made, bonds were issued for $1,100,000 at 1¼ per cent. The council then spent $25,000 for architect's plans for the building, $46,750 for the block from M to N, Fifteenth to Sixteenth, in the summer of 1941, and $258,000 for the Fifteenth street improvements authorized.

This left $770,250 of the money from sale of the $1,100,000 in bonds. This money, along with the better than 94 per cent collections of the $75,000 yearly levy, was invested. With interest, the sum has grown so that $950,000 in bonds is set aside for the construction of the building.

To more efficiently administer the auditorium money, the council last year set up three funds. The first is the $950,000 in bonds for constructing the building. The second is $42,000 in cash held for improvements on Fifteenth between K and O. The third is a sinking fund into which all collections from the $75,000 yearly levy from now to 1960 will go to retire the $770,000 of bonds still outstanding.

None of this money may be used for the operation of the city; it is tied down for the purpose given and nothing else.

The new amendment authorizes the city to issue $1,500,000 in bonds in addition to those previously authorized for completion of the building. They would be 20-year bonds sold at not more than 3 per cent interest. At 2 per cent, interest over the 20-year period would total about $315,000, according to City Finance Director Theo Berg.

Aspirins Cost 500,000 'Gold Yaun' In China

. . . About 70 Cents

By FRED HAMPSON.

SHANGHAI—(AP)—Here's an example of inflation run wild again with communists approaching Shanghai.

I sent a boy out to buy a tin of aspirins—which a newspaperman needs around here these days.

The boy called the drug store first. They said the price was 300,000 "gold yuan." I gave him a bale of notes.

Ten minutes later the boy was back—empty-handed. Before he got to the store the price had gone up to 500,000 "gold yuan," which is about 70 cents.

I didn't have that much paper money handy, I finally got three tins of aspirin by parting with my last Chinese silver dollar.

Sewer Wall Collapses; 20 Men Escape

. . . ON CHICAGO'S SOUTH SIDE

CHICAGO—(AP)—A wall collapsed today while almost 20 workmen were constructing a sewer tunnel 48 feet underground. No one was injured seriously.

The workers—many of them stunned—made their way to the surface unassisted.

The accident occurred at 74th street and Woodlawn avenue, where the men are constructing a sewer tunnel beneath the Illinois Central railroad tracks.

Authorities said a sudden release of air pressure in the tunnel apparently caused a wall to collapse.

The sewer tunnel is a Chicago sanitary district project, on the south side. The S. A. Healy Construction Co. and the Peter Kiewit & Sons Co., are in charge of the project.

WOMEN FIND LOCAL MEN

Looking Better, Handsomer!

LINCOLN, April 27—

So many women have been commenting on the improvement in male appearance hereabouts that we put a sleuth on the story. He snooped, he interviewed, he checked all over town. Here's his scoop: "The men who look better are using Pal Hollow Ground razor blades 100%. I've talked to dozens and the story's the same—Pal Hollow Ground. They tell me they shave better, cleaner, with no irritation to tender skins. Pal still gives you 4 for 10¢, 10 for 25¢, 21 for 49¢, and 44 for 98¢—Single or Double Edge. So I bought some myself! How do I look?"

Decontrol Bill To Be Considered

22 Votes Needed For Introduction Of Rent Measure

The legislative judiciary committee in an executive meeting Tuesday agreed to sponsor a bill which would take Nebraska out from under the provisions of the federal rent control act by Nov. 1, 1949.

If the proposed measure is supported by 22 votes in the legislature, the committee will hold a public hearing on the bill before any action is taken upon it. If the 22 votes are not mustered, the bill will not be introduced.

Introduction of such a bill in this session of the legislature has been urged by the state real estate boards, which contend that if the state does not act controls will remain in some areas and cause confusion.

Governor Val Peterson and a number of the members of the legislature, have held, however, that the controls are federal legislation and that when they are removed action should come from the same source.

Would End Nov. 1.

The first section of the proposed bill provides that "this legislature hereby declares federal rent control, as provided for in the housing and rent act of 1949 is no longer necessary in Nebraska, or any part thereof."

The second section provides that the governor shall notify the national housing expediter by Nov. 1, 1949, that federal rent control is no longer necessary in the state.

Under the federal act rent decontrol is optional on a local basis with approval of any changes by the governor. Under this system, however, areas could be re-controlled if thought necessary by the housing expediter.

Annual Meeting Bill Given "Green Light"

In other action the judiciary committee reported to general file LB 57 as amended, which, if approved by the voters, would allow state senators to be elected for four year terms, and could meet annually if they decided it necessary.

The changes would require a constitutional amendment, and would be submitted to the voters at the next state general election. Under the new plan half of the senators would be elected every two years, making possible a hold-over of half the membership in each session.

According to the plan, the legislative session in the even-numbered years could be called by the legislature itself rather than by the governor as the constitution now provides. In this session the legislature would deal only with budget and appropriation matters and confirm appointments by the governor.

Ready 2nd Muny Court Measure

Also reported to general file by the committee was LB 535, authorizing the city of Omaha to condemn land for municipal parking facilities. The bill was introduced by members of the Omaha legislative delegation.

The committee agreed to sponsor a bill which would give municipal judges in Omaha and Lincoln the same powers as are now held by justices of the peace. The bill will be recommended to the legislature by the committee. The provisions were formerly contained in LB 170, which also included a salary raise for the judges. This bill was killed however.

The committee also agreed to sponsor a resolution directing the legislative council to co-operate with the state bar association in a study of statutes relating to motor vehicle title laws.

Plug Linoma Beach Break

Flooded Area May Be Used For Crops

OMAHA — (AP) — The main break of the Platte river breakthrough near Linoma Beach has been plugged.

Maurice Langdon of Papillion, attorney for the Western Sarpy Drainage district, said workers of the district have completed work on the levee and adjacent farm land is drying out.

Langdon said prospects are that the flooded area, which reached a total of 10,000 acres, can be planted to crops this year.

He said workers plugged only the break through which water was flowing. There are six other breaks, but the river has lowered so that no water is going through them.

Car Crashes Into Door; Damage, $100

A car which crashed into a sliding door at the B. F. Goodrich Tire company early Tuesday evening did an estimated $100 damage before it could be stopped.

Leo C. Barnell, 3320 Dudley, reported that he was driving west on L street and turned into the driveway of the tire company, but when he tried to stop his brakes failed and he crashed into the door. Manager I. B. Hevelone gave the $100 damage estimate.

One Out Of 5 Cars On Road Is Over-Age

. . . 12 Or More Years Old

WASHINGTON—(AP) — About 6,000,000 cars, or almost one out of each five now on the road, are beyond the age (12 years) at which cars normally are scraped.

The commerce department making this estimate today, accordingly reported that there is "still a very large market for new cars."

This bright note for auto makers coincided with the effective date of the second relaxation of the federal reserve boards installment credit controls in two months. From today on, dealers may allow buyers 24 months to pay for cars or other goods.

"There's A Long, Long Trail A-Winding—"

MISS MARIAN WOOD

MISS ELEANORE TALBOT

MRS. WILLARD FOLSOM

WE HAD A NOTION to head this one "Turn Backward, Turn Backward, O Time in Thy Flight"—but we thought better of it, because after all 1923 isn't exactly back in the dark ages—We went on a tour of 1923—that is the last three months of it, October, November and December—Tuesday afternoon—Had a wonderful time, incidentally — so much fun that we decided it would be shameful to deprive our reading public of some of the choice things we picked up on the printed page in those days—

• • •

WE DIDN'T STOP with society, either — although we found that there were four mighty popular brides-to-be during that period —We read the ads—"Black walnut fudge, 39c," "Extra Pants Free" — "Little Men's Shoes — Here's a dandy black Dongola kid—" and so forth—We found that Thomas Meighan was in "Woman Proof" at the Lyric theater, and that Larry Semon was giving a movie audience a big laugh in "Midnight Cabaret" —We learned that 1923 was the year that Nebraska went down in defeat at the hands of Syracuse U.—and that the Nebraska line-up included such well known names as Rhodes, Weir, Berquist, Ogden, Bassett, Robertson, H. Dewitz, R. Dewitz, and Noble.

Scattered around every now and then was the information that "Medium brown hair looks best of all after a Golden Glint shampoo"—and we found that as far as linens were concerned the "Prices Lowest Since the War."

Those four popular brides-to-be were Miss Eleanore Talbot, Miss Helen Curtice, Miss Marian Wood and Miss Frances Whitmore—Miss Talbot was marrying as everyone knows, Richard Kimball—Miss Curtice now Mrs. Arthur Harris, was to become the bride of Chauncey Abbott of Omaha, and Miss Whitmore is none other than Mrs. Walter W. White. Miss Wood as you also know, is now Mrs. Donald Pegler.

Then we went dashing to the morgue—stop shuddering—it's the place the pictures, past, present and future, repose—and began to dig out the ones we could reach easily—We suspect foul play or bribery, though, in the case of the bridal picture of Mrs. Walter W. White—It was not to be found. However, as you will notice above, we did find one of the bride's matron of honor, her sister, Mrs. Willard Folsom. We had no trouble finding the picture accompanying the engagement announcement of Miss Wood, or that of Miss Kimball—They appear above under their now familiar names.

The small-fry you see on the page today, are none other than Allen and Julia O'Connor, son and daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. J. O'Connor of Monrovia, Cal., who were visiting in Lincoln—

• • •

BUT WE READ ON AND ON—We read the announcement made by Mr. and Mrs. George Westgate of the marriage of their daughter, Allegra, to Chauncey Walter Duke Kinsey, which took place in Des Moines, Ia., on Saturday, October 20. The bride, so the story says, wore a three-piece suit of brown Jerona cloth. Mr. Kinsey took his bride to Elm Creek to reside—The announcement stated he was engaged in business there.

• • •

CAME ACROSS A STORY of a Saturday Night club party at the Lincoln hotel, where Dr. Carl Bumstead won the prize in an elimination waltz contest—and Jerry Latsch won the wheelbarrow race. Lee Ager, we were informed, was the winner of the scooter race.

• • •

WE READ THAT Burks Harley had completed his studies at the Massachusetts School of Pharmacy in Boston, and had returned home—But before his journey to Nebraska he spent some time in New York City where Wilbur Chenoweth entertained at a "tea" in Mr. Harley's honor—Among the guests were Arnott Folsom, John Moore, Flavia Waters and Margaret Perry.

• • •

FOUND OUT THAT of December 1, 1923, L. R. Doyle severed his connection with the county as assistant county attorney under Charles E. Matson, and would engage in law business for himself—And that Lieut. and Mrs. T. J. Doyle, and their small son, Thomas John Doyle, VII, were arriving on a Tuesday morning in October from New London, Conn., where Lieut. Doyle had been stationed. He, however, was en route to San Francisco and Los Angeles where he would, with the gold braid of a captain, take command of the submarine S-40.

• • •

THANKSGIVING DAY was quite a family affair that year—We read that Mr. and Mrs. George DeLacy, and their three-months-old daughter, Eloise (Mrs. Richard Joyce), were coming from Omaha to join the Faulkner family circle at the home of Dr. and Mrs. A. O. Faulkner.

• • •

WENT ON READING and discovered that Reinald Werrenrath was the big name in vocal artists in those days—And that Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Miller had given a party for Rosa Ponselle following her concert here—

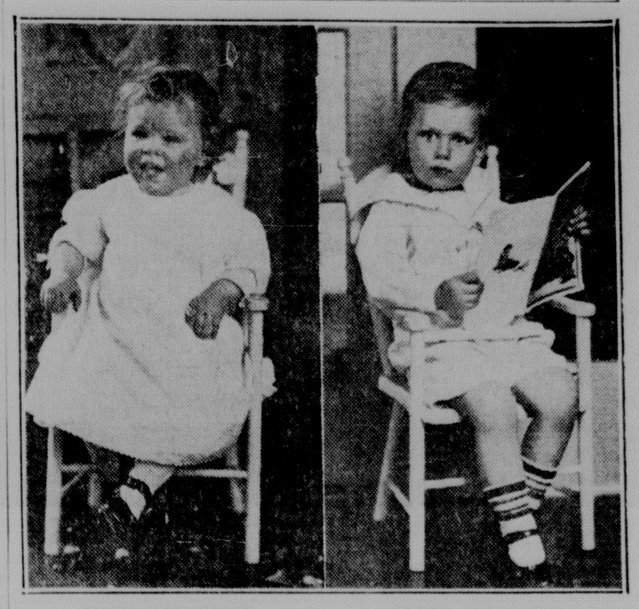

Learned, too, that Claude Gillingwater was hot stuff in the movies—he was appearing in two shows at Lincoln movie houses—

• • •

THE SONG HITS OF 1923, we found, were "Barney Google," "I Won't Say I Will, But I Won't Say I Won't"—"Just a Girl that Men Forget," and "Down by the Old Apple Tree."

• • •

AND THAT MR. AND MRS. Samuel R. McKelvie planned to spend Thanksgiving in Omaha with May Robson and her company.

Dispute Inquiry Sought

GOP Senators Want Resignation Reasons

WASHINGTON — (AP) — Republican senators today called for a detailed inquiry into the reasons for Secretary of the Navy Sullivan's resignation.

Sullivan quit yesterday with a blast at Secretary of Defense Johnson for halting construction of the USS United States, which would have been the world's largest aircraft carrier.

While Chairman Tydings (D-Md) of the senate armed services committee chalked up the matter as a "closed incident," GOP committee members said they thought the group should dig deeper into the dispute.

Navy Side Ignored.

But Sen. Bridges (R-NH), top-ranking GOP committee member, told reporters he thought there was "an understanding" with Tydings to call up Sullivan for an explanation "in view of the conflicting statements that have been bandied about."

Shortly after his resignation was announced by the White House, Sullivan released a letter he had sent to Johnson in which he stated, in effect, that the navy had not been given an opportunity to present its side of the carrier question.

The project had been under attack by air force backers who said the huge flattop would allow the navy to intrude on the air arm's strategic bombing assignment.

Wherry Wants Inquiry.

In his letter, Sullivan expressed fear that Johnson's action might lead to additional whittling away of naval functions and added:

"However, even of greater significance is the unprecedented action on the part of the secretary of defense in so drastically and arbitrarily restricting the plans of an armed service without consultation with that service."

Johnson replied with this brief statement: "I regret very much that my old friend and colleague, John L. Sullivan, has joined the aircraft carrier issue on personal grounds and I believe that he, too, will soon regret his action."

Republican Senate Leader Wherry (Neb) told reporters: "I think the committee should hear Sullivan."

The matter probably will come up for discussion at a regular meeting of the armed services committee Thursday.

Among those mentioned as a possible successor to Sullivan is Jonathan Daniels, editor of the Raleigh (N. C.) News and Observer.

Community Nursing Talk Slated May 4

Lecturer Says Christianity Is Key To Success

. . . In Home, Business

Archibald Carey, C.S.B. of Detroit, declared in a lecture at First Church of Christ, Scientist, Tuesday night that better health and happier relations in home and business can be demonstrated with scientific certainty by application of the rules for living as taught by Christ Jesus.

"The Founder of Christianity, Christ Jesus, did not overlook ordinary, everyday needs," Mr. Carey said. "When people were sick, he healed them. When they needed money to pay taxes, it was provided. When the multitude were hungry and needed food, he furnished bread and fish. When they were unsuccessful in fishing, he showed them what to do. He gave that unsurpassed rule for improving human relationships—'Thou shalt love thy neighbour as thyself.' He did not ignore human needs; he provided for them. His teachings were practical and effective.

Scientific Understanding.

"If we were able scientifically to understand and utilize the laws which Jesus used, should not we, also, be able to provide for these ordinary human needs? It would seem that a scientific understanding of the Christianity Jesus taught and exemplified should enable us to do this. That is what Christian Science is doing today for thousands of people."

The lecturer took note of the objection frequently heard, that the acts of Christ Jesus were miracles which cannot be performed today.

"Just what is a miracle?" he asked.

He then drew a parallel between the modern miracle of flight and the wonderful works accomplished by the master Christian long ago.

"The flight of an airplane," he continued, "the instant communication of radio, even the ordinary performance of today's automobile, would seem either impossible or miraculous to the ignorance of the opening years of this century But all these things cease to be miraculous as the laws which produce them are understood.

Ignorance Is Black.

"Fifty years ago the laws of flight were not understood. Yet these laws were the same then as they are today. The laws have not changed. Only ignorance of these laws prevented their use in 1901.

"If we should consider the so-called miracles of Jesus with the same scientific open mindedness, search for the laws involved, and learn to appreciate the operation of the divine laws which he so perfectly understood, might we not be enabled to understand the same laws he utilized and produce similar results?

"This is what Christian Science is doing. People are being healed of diseases that are considered incurable. Desperate business problems are solved. Ordinary human needs are being met. The scientific understanding which Christian Science brings has transformed the lives of thousands of people. And it can help each one of us.

"The Christian Science textbook, 'Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures' by Mary Baker Eddy, Discoverer and Founder of Christian Science, says (p. 494), 'Divine Love always has met and always will meet every human need.'"

MARINES' FEARS OF END OF CORPS GROW

WASHINGTON — (AP) — The marines now have official, written support for their suspicion that armed forces unification may mean the end of the corps.

Secretary of the Navy John L. Sullivan, in his angry letter to Secretary of Defense Johnson denouncing Johnson's order to cancel building of the 65,000 ton super-aircraft carrier, voiced this apprehension:

"The conviction that this will result in a renewed effort to abolish the marine corps and to transfer all naval and marine aviation elsewhere adds to my anxiety."

Another Source Of Alarm.

The marines' alarm already had been stirred by a statement from another official quarter.

Secretary of the Army Kenneth C. Royall, testifying before the senate armed forces committee two weeks ago, had urged that the authority of the secretary of defense be made strong enough to allow him, with presidential approval, to "make the marines part of the army or the army part of the marines."

Because the marine corps strength presently is about 80,000 compared with more than half a million men in the army, Royall's reference to making the army part of the marine corps was not taken seriously. But his mention of army absorption of the marine corps had an ominous sound for the soldiers of the sea.

But Sullivan's letter to Johnson disclosed the worry was not only that the marine corps troops—the original experts on amphibious warfare—might be taken over by the army.

When Sullivan spoke of anxiety over transfer on all naval and marine aviation "elsewhere" it was obvious he referred to the air force.

The marine corps has no voting voice on the joint chiefs of staff. That military high command is made up of the chief of staff of the army, chief of staff of the air force and chief of naval operations. The marines, not an autonomous military body, are represented by the naval chief. Their future thus is tied to that of the navy.

Needle Removed

SCOTTSBLUFF, Neb.—(AP)—After more than 40 years, Mrs. W. L. Wichner no longer carries two small pieces of broken sewing needle imbedded in her foot. When she was five, she stepped on the needle, but doctors failed to find the parts in her foot. Recently an X-ray revealed the two quarter inch pieces of steel. Tuesday they were removed by surgeons in an hour-long operation.

Townsend Given Life Membership In Cosmo Club

. . . Anniversary Dinner

Willard Townsend was presented a life membership in Cosmopolitan International Tuesday night at the 25th anniversary dinner of the Lincoln Cosmopolitan club at the Lincoln hotel.

International president in 1949, Townsend is now chairman of the board of governors. He in turn presented to Kenneth Flory, president of the local group, a dinner bell.

Dwight Merriam, Kearney, executive secretary of Cosmopolitan International, was the main speaker for the evening.

Merriam discussed future plans for the club and its work in the past. He cited the fact that Lincoln's club is "one of the three or four oldest" in the international group. Jack Lofink served as toastmaster.

Chapter 3

Felicity had had a good many qualms about starting off for Florida in a fourth-hand trailer and a fifth- or sixth-hand car. But she had been so desperate. New York in winter, huddled in a cheap East Side tenement with the children needing heavy clothes, good nourishing food—and then Ellen had come to them, under-nourished, frightened half out of her baby wits by the hobgoblin tales of the old woman to whom her mother had given her, while Deloris, the mother, a burlesque star, followed her arduous profession.

Only the children's need could ever have persuaded Felicity to take the step she took then. She had dressed in her best—which was pretty bad—and she had gone to the Broadway offices of a dean of the theater, Charles Drummond, who was nearing seventy yet still actively in harness. Charles Drummond, who had taken a lovely girl of sixteen and moulded her into an idol of Broadway who, at twenty, had all but broken Drummond's heart by eloping with the good-looking juvenile lead in her new show. That girl had been Felicity's mother, Hope Bannister; the good-looking juvenile had been Burton Horne, who was, in Drummond's opinion, a "ham" of very poor quality.

Drummond's love for Hope had been great enough to make him forgive the blow she had dealt him. For five years he helped her in her bitter fight to lift Burton to her own pinnacle of success. Burton Horne had a profile, an athletic build, a delightful manner, and a smile; but, unfortunately for the adoring Hope's dreams, he had nothing else, not even stability of character.

When Felicity was born a year after her marriage, Hope had asked Drummond to be the child's godfather. Drummond had done more; he had transferred a great deal of his love for Hope to her small daughter. That love had been great enough to be spread four years later to Hope's son, Jason. Hope had died when Jason was born, and Drummond had never forgiven Burton Horne who, the night of Hope's death, had been drunk in the tawdry apartment of a chorus girl.

Drummond's interest in the children had provided them with an education. As much as they would accept. He would have done a great deal for them, but he could not conceal his contempt for Burton. Once this had come out in the open, Jason and Felicity had stiffly refused to accept any more help from him.

But now—the doctor said that Ellen must not spend the winter in New York; that the other children should be out of the chill, dank tenement, away from the cold weather; that they must have good, nourishing food. And Felicity had known there was only one thing to do. She had gone to Charles Drummond.

Drummond had listened to her quietly and when she had put a little shabby leather box on the table before him, his hand had shaken a little as he touched it. Inside that box, he knew, there was a jewelled bracelet he himself had given Hope as a memento of her first Broadway success.

"I wouldn't sell it for anything in the world," Felicity told him, her voice shaken. "She loved it, and it's all I've got left of her. But I thought if—well, if you'd lend me a thousand dollars and keep the bracelet as security—"

"And what makes you think I'd need security for a loan to you, Felicity?" Drummond said grimly.

"You wouldn't, Uncle Charles. It's for my own self-respect," she told him steadily. "And maybe I won't be able to pay the money back. I might not, you know. But if you had the bracelet, I wouldn't worry so much."

"I can't imagine your father overlooking this all these years," Drummond could have bitten his tongue the next moment, but Felicity stiffened and the color drained from her face.

"He didn't know I had it," she said stiffly. "And anyway, it's mine. Mother gave it to me—the night—the night—Jay was born."

Drummond's finger pressed the catch of the worn leather case and it snapped open. He looked down at the jewelled bauble. Suddenly his eyes sharpened and he lifted it cut to the light. But quickly he controlled himself. Felicity mustn't dream that this was a clumsy imitation, worth not more than ten or fifteen dollars. His heart burned with rage against that charming, graceless scamp, her father. And he wrote her a check for a thousand dollars.

"Remember, if this isn't enough," he told her when she was leaving, "the bracelet is worth a good deal more. You have only to wire me."

"It will be enough—it will be plenty," she assured him eagerly, against the lump in her throat. "Thank you, Uncle Charles."

She had stood on tiptoe and impulsively her lips had touched his cheek. And then she was gone. Drummond had stood in the door of his office for a long moment after the elevator door closed behind her; and there was a mistiness in his faded eyes as he turned at last, the case holding the cheap imitation of beauty in his hands. His hands shook a little as he opened his old-fashioned wall safe, drew a key from his pocket, and unlocked a small drawer in which he placed the worn leader case.

The idea of buying a trailer and a car and going to Florida for the winter had occurred to Felicity as a brilliant inspiration on a day when she and the children were returning from the park and had stopped to admire a window display of trailers in a Columbus Circle agency. But the purchase of even a fourth-hand trailer and an equally aged car had taken more of her money than she had been a little panic-stricken that night when Garrett Forbes had offered her a share in his adventure.

LONDON — (INS) — Princess Margaret left London's Northolt airport today for Italy where she will spend four weeks.

The princess is scheduled to land at Naples, and then go to the Isle of Capri for the first portion of her sojourn.

During her month in Italy, the younger princess may visit Pope Pius XII.

George Dunn Again Heads Local S. A. R.

Dowling Warns Against Fears

All officers of the local chapter of Sons of American Revolution were re-elected Tuesday night at their annual meeting at the Lincoln hotel. They are:

George W. Dunn, jr., president.
Lloyd J. Marti, vice-president.
Louis T. Shirk, secretary.
P. K. Slaymaker, treasurer.

Guest speaker was Allen Dowling, State Resources Division chief. Dowling told the group that absolute freedom of discussion and unmolested inquiry are essential to development of the American culture.

Warns Against Fear.

"The typical American is a liberal man," Dowling said. "He has faith, but he does not persecute. We either are afraid of heresy or we are not afraid. If we are afraid, the door will be shut to the development of a culture which will meet our changing needs."

He warned that sentiment and enthusiasm are not enough to build an enduring society. He said people must first have knowledge and then the wisdom to apply that knowledge properly.

"We must be willing to support open discussion at all costs. We must be willing to dissect our governmental framework and our economic society as fearlessly as a geologist examine the origins of rocks."

Dissenters A Tradition.

Dowling observed that the founders of a free America were dissenters. Within three generations, the present federal union stemmed from a "general dissent from the dissent."

Dowling said world peace can be assured only by American leadership for "unifying educational forces."

Purse Taken—Mrs. E. A. Spader, 4109 Touzalin, reported to police that late Tuesday night someone entered her home and took a purse from the dining room table. The purse contained about $25 in cash, she said.

State Conservation Meeting Is Scheduled

Normal Wheat Yield Slated For Southwest

. . . Says County Agent

IMPERIAL, Neb.—With moisture conditions now favorable, according to agricultural Agent John R. Reynolds, wheat and other small grain crops in Chase county will have a chance for a normal crop yield, despite the spotted appearance of many fields.

Reynolds said wheat didn't grow during the fall and winter wind erosion retarded growth of the crop. With all the complications, he added, "the bread basket of Chase county will not have an empty appearance."

Reynolds added that the alfalfa crop in Chase is making good progress and the cool season range grasses are making rapid growth. Dairy production, he said, now is on the normal spring level and poultry production is above 1948.

Grand Island Will Be Host 2-Day Affair

On May 4 And 5; Kraschel Among Guest Speakers

The state conference of county agricultural conservation program committeeman and office personnel will be held in Grand Island, May 4 and 5, Frank W. Reed, chairman of the Nebraska Production and Marketing administration committee announced Wedensday.

During the first day, delegates will hear speakers William B. Crawley, assistant administrator for production, Washington, D. C.; and Nels G. Kraschel, former Iowa governor and recent general agent for the farm credit administration. A panel of county committeemen to discuss "Price Supports for Agricultural Commodities," and a banquet are also scheduled.

Wallace To Speak.

Fred S. Wallace, Buffalo county farmer and former chairman of the state AAA committee, and Ralph S. Trigg, administrator of the PMA, will be featured speakers of the second day session.

The meeting will give county committees a chance to become personally acquainted and exchange ideas on program administration, PMA Committee Chairman Reed said.

According to Reed, the responsibilities of program administration at the county level have increased at an enormous rate during the past few months.

Loans and purchases agreements on wheat and corn and other commodities have reached an all-time high. Increased program participation by farmers and delivery of wheat under loan and purchase agreement to begin May 1, will place an additional load on county offices, he said.

Reed stated the county committees are now faced with the responsibility of obtaining farm acreage data to be used in establishing wheat acreage allotments for the 1950 crop year. Present wheat supplies, added to the expected 1949 production, make it necessary under the agricultural adjustment act to establish wheat allotments for 1950.

Man Released After 10-Year Entombment

. . . Sealed In 3x5 Room By Mother In 1939

NEW YORK—(AP)—A shaggy-bearded man of 33, dug out after 10 years of fantastic solitude in a dank cubbyhole, yearned today to return to the tomb-like cubicle in which his mother sealed him when war broke out.

Shoeless, filthy, his clothes in rags, Paul Makushak, one-time college student, stood on wobbly legs and blinked into the unaccustomed glare of electric lights.

"I liked it in there," he said, "I'd like to go back. I don't care about this outside world." Police took him to a hospital.

The man told a strange story of voluntary exile since 1939—when his mother sealed him off from the world with a wall of wood and plaster at the outbreak of World war II.

Father Didn't Know.

Makushak spent the 10 years in a tiny walled-in cubicle built in the corner of a littered third floor bedroom in a brownstone house in the Greenpoint section of Brooklyn.

His father, who runs a tailor shop in the same building, said he never knew the man was imprisoned in the house.

The cubicle, about three feet wide and five feet long—scarcely big enough to hold Makushak when he stretched on the floor to sleep—had been devised, police said, because his mother presumably wanted him to escape being drafted.

Vague About War.

Makushak, however, was vague about war.

"The draft?" he replied to questioning by Brooklyn District Attorney Miles, F. McDonald. "I don't know about the draft. That was in 1917, wasn't it?"

He said he didn't "believe in violence," and added "I don't know" when asked if he would have gone in the army.

The story of Makushak's imprisonment came to the attention of police last night after the mother, 58-year-old Mrs. Anna Makushak, entered a hospital.

She asked a neighborhood woman to go and care for her son—whose only contact with the world was a hole in the top of his tomb, through which he was fed.

The neighbor, unidentified, told police about him.

With crowbars, police bashed down the thin plaster wall that sealed Mukushak off, and lifted him back into the world.

He was dressed in heavy woolen clothing. A tattered grey stocking cap was pulled down over his thick, matted black hair.

Policemen had to hold him up when he walked.

His beard flared out around his face in four-inch curls, and he wore glasses that were held together with wire.

Around his legs was a pair of thick stockings, pulled up over the knees. For trousers he wore long underwear that once had been white.

Knotted around his loins was a ripped and tattered grey sweater.

The tiny cubicle itself was littered with trash, empty cans and rags.

Several books on shorthand lay on a makeshift shelf. Makushak said he liked to practice shorthand to while away the time.

A Bible lay at arm's reach.

On the floor was a pair of 1930 New York state auto license plates.

Makushak's father, Peter, 60, lives in the same building at 102 Nassau avenue. Operator of a little tailor and dry goods shop, the father said he last saw his son as a youth of 23, when Paul one day came into the tailor shop to fix a light socket. The father said he and his wife had quarreled several times about the son. The wife, he said, told him Paul was in Canada.

U. S. Olympic Bid In Doubt

ROME—(AP)—A dogfight among six United States cities seeking the 1956 Olympics threatened today to send the games to Melbourne or Buenos Aires.

Despite a unanimous decision of the U. S. Olympic committee to back Detroit as the sole U. S. contender, Minneapolis and Los Angeles are insisting on presenting their bids to the international Olympic committee.

If they do go before the I.O.C. now in session here, and asg for the 1956 games, Avery Brundage, the U. S. delegate on the committee, also will put in the bids of Philadelphia, Chicago and San Francisco.

This was disclosed by Brundage today only 24 hours before the international committee begins examining bids for the 1956 summer games.

Louis Ring Group Makes Big Debut

DETROIT—(AP)—Joe Louis makes his debut as a promoter Wednesday night.

The former heavyweight champion will start his new career by staging a boxing show in his home town.

Three 10-rounders, a six-round preliminary and a four-round exhibition featuring world featherweight champion Willie Pep of Hartford, Conn., are on the program at Olympia stadium.

As a promoter, Joe didn't disregard the build-up.

With Louis at rinkside will be former heavyweight champion Jack Dempsey. Dempsey will second his protege, Elis Ask of Finland, who opposes Pep in the exhibition.

Good Marks Pep Hastings Track Meet

HASTINGS, Neb.—(AP)—Fort Hays, Kas., State college trampled Hastings and Doane in a triangular track meet Tuesday.

The Kansans scored 96 4/5 points to 42 3/5 for Doane and 30 3/5 for Hastings.

Performances were impressive.

Ronnie Ritchey, Hastings sprinter, slammed the dashes, speeding the former in 10 seconds, one-tenth second under the Nebraska College conference mark, and clipping the latter in 22.7 to tie the league standard around a full curve.

Doane ran the 880-yard relay in 1:32.3, less than a second off the loop mark.

Harry Moore, Hastings, tied with Fred Simmons, Fort Hays, at 6 feet even in the high jump to eclipse the loop record in that event.

Hastings' Bob Kissinger finished second in the two-mile, but his time of 10:24.2 was more than 10 seconds under the conference standard.

Scout Says Yank Club Underrated

. . . Points To Position

NEW YORK—(AP)—The fast getaway the Yankees have made in the American league race comes as no surprise to Paul Kritchell, the portly gent who heads the club's scouting staff.

"Where did they pick us to finish?" he snorted indignantly. "Fifth or sixth, wasn't it? They're crazy—we've still got a lot of good ball players.

"Wait until a few of those cripples are ready to go—DiMaggio and Porterfield and Shea—and we'll really show them something."

Kritchell, who survives all the shakeups in the Bomber organization, personally scouted many of the present Yankee stars. He is something like a mother hen whose chicks have been criticized.

"You haven't seen anything yet," he said severely. "Wait until that kid first-baseman, Dick Kryhoski, starts beltin' that ball. He's still pressing now, trying to win his job, but I'm telling you he can hit a mile.

What, Krich was asked, did he think of Yogi Berra as a receiver? The sawed-off character with the upper structure of a Babe Ruth had just bashed a homer high into the right-field stands, so it would have been superfluous to inquire about his hitting.

"He's improving every day," avowed the scout, himself a former backstop. "All he needs to learn is a little more footwork and to develop more confidence in his throwing. He has a great arm, but he hesitates to use it. He'll get over that as he goes

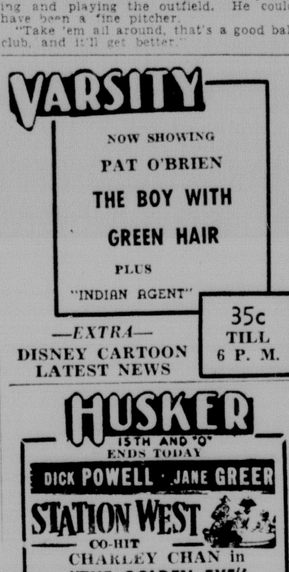

Billy Johnson's slugging since Manager Casey Stengel gave him the call at third over Bobby Brown, the "Golden Boy," is a great source of satisfaction to Kritchell.

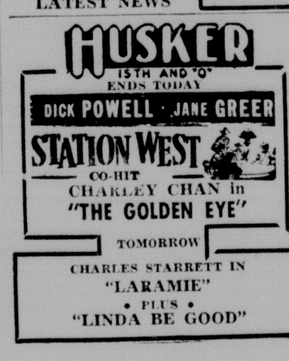

"A great all-around player, that boy," he said. "Plays anywhere. First time I ever saw him in New Jersey, he was pitching and playing the outfield. He could have been a fine pitcher.

Zale Quits Ring

TONY RECIDES NOT TO FIGHT CERDAN IN REMATCH; WILL BE INSTRUCTOR

By CHARLES CHAMBERLAIN.

CHICAGO—(AP)—Tony Zale, with enough gumption to admit that he is over the hill, has retired from the ring after a long, brilliant, rough career.

In making his decision, the "man of steel" whose age has made him a bit rusty, surrendered a $60,000 guarantee for a return bout with Marcel Cerdan. The Freshman won Zale's middleweight boxing crown on a 12th round technical knockout in Jersey City last Sept. 21.

The two battlers had been rematched at New York's Polo grounds June 21. Zale, who will be 36 next month, was assured of at least $60,000 as his share.

The Tournament of Champions promoting firm now plans to give veteran Steve Belloise or possibly battle-scarred Jake La Motta, the Bronx bull, a chance at Cerdan in either June or September. A Sugar Ray Robinson-Kid Gavilan welterweight title bout may be on the same card.

Tony Zale

Zale, father of two young daughters, will not hang up his gloves. He will wear them in the role of chief instructor teaching lads of Chicago's Catholic Youth organization how to fight.

LOOKS BAD.

"I looked bad against Cerdan," said Zale, a clean-living family man whose bloody scraps with Rocky Graziano made ring history. "I realize I've passed my peak. It was to satisfy my pride that I wanted to meet Cerdan again. But now I'm satisfied to rest on my past."

Zale used to keep in condition working in the steel mills of his home town of Gary, Ind. He held the middleweight crown from 1940 to 1948 except for a brief time in 1947 when he lost to Graziano in the second of their three fierce encounters. He regained his title from Rocky last June 10 at Newark, N. J., flattening him in the third round.

Zale thus equalled the feat of the immortal Stanley Ketchell in recapturing his middleweight honors by knocking out the man who dethroned him.

Zale's three battle with Graziano paid him $268,892, a money record for middleweights. Their second engagement in Chicago stadium July 16, 1947—a gruelling exchange of knockdowns with Graziano being declared the winner in the sixth round—drew the largest indoor gate in boxing history $422,918.

OMAHA TAKES BLUES

OMAHA—(AP)—Omaha university won its fourth straight golf meet Tuesday, taking Creighton 16 to 11. However, it was the first time the Indians have ever beaten the Bluejays.

Illness Sidelines Sprinter Hutton

Dick Hutton has been scratched from Coach Ed Weir's list of entries for the Drake Relays to be held at Des Moines Friday and Saturday.

A stomach disorder prevents the Auburn sprinter from assuming his usual duties as lead-off man on the Cornhusker 440 and 880 relay teams. Bill Hein, Alliance Sophomore, replaced Hutton after trials Tuesday afternoon.

Richards To Use 'T'

. . . At Pepperdine

LOS ANGELES—(AP)—Ray Richards, ex-Nebraska U. football star and newly named head coach of Pepperdine college's gridiron fortunes, will switch the Waves from the single wing to the T-formation of play.

Richard, a veteran of 24 years in college and professional football, made this disclosure following his appointment to succeed Warren Gaer as head man of Pepperdine football.

Richards, line coach at Pepperline last year, succeeds Gaer, who resigned to coach Drake university, his alma mater.

Athletic Director Al Duer signed Richards to a one-year contract. The hefty ex-Nebraska tackle, later a star blocker for Bronko Nagurski for the Chicago Bears, was line coach at UCLA for 10 years prior to coming to Pepperdine.

Under Gaer's single wing system, Pepperdine enjoyed signal success in its first two years of football, but met with reverses last year.

Cyclones Dump N.U.

. . . By 3-2 Count

AMES, Ia.—(AP)—Iowa State turned the tables on Nebraska and gave the Huskers a 3-2 trimming in a Big Seven baseball game Tuesday.

Iowa State had taken a 1-0 lead in the first, and expanded it to 2-0 in the fifth. In the top of the ninth Bill Denker banged out a homer for the Huskers bringing in Blatchford ahead of him.

With the game deadlocked 2-all, Bob Heneley opened Iowa State's half of the ninth with a single, advanced to second on a sacrifice and went to third when Second Baseman Hobe Hays booted a grounder by Lee Knox. He scored on a fielder's choice.

Henely also scored the first Cyclone run in the first inning when he scored on a double play ball.

The loss was the fourth in league play for the defending champion Huskers. They have won three times.

A pair of games against the Kansas Jayhawks at Lawrence, Kas., Friday and Saturday are next on the Nebraska schedule.

The Firing Line

FIVE Cornhusker gridders have leading roles in the oncoming Kosmet Klub musical, "Let's Change The Subject" . . . Helping change the subject is a pony chorus consisting of Ardie Means, Bob Mullen, Jim Godfrey and Bob Schneider . . . Fred Golan, Husker tackle, has a speaking part . . . Joe Reichler, who covers the big leagues for The Star via AP, was the only writer to pick Boston and Cleveland a year ago . . . His choices this year are Brooklyn and the Boston Red Sox . . . Red Littler, ex-Husker track star and present Beatrice high mentor, wants to see the 200-yard low hurdle event cut to 180 yards and the hurdles spaced 20 yards apart instead of the present 18 . . . Red points to the fact that college hurdles are spaced 20 yards, causing prep grads to learn all over again . . . Wayne Terwilliger, Denver star of 1948, is now starting second baseman for Los Angeles in the Pacific Coast league . . Against Oakland Monday, he collected four singles in five trips to the plate . . . Carl Sawatski, husky Des Moines catcher of 1948, is now backstopping for Nashville, Tenn., in the Southern Association . . . He recently slammed a 510-foot home run, longest drive ever hit in the Nashville park . . . Only six humans have ever bettered 55 feet in the shot . . . They are Fonville of Michigan, 58¼; Torrance of Louisiana, 57-1; Blozis of Georgetown, 56-6¼; Thompson of Southern Cal, 56-2; Hackney of Kansas State, 55-11; Fuchs of Yale, 56-3½, and Chandler of Stanford, 55-4 . . . Chick Battey, LCC's promising 17-year-old golfer, now weighs 162 pounds . . . When he was cleaning up links honors a year ago, Chick scaled only 138 . . . A cage star at Lincoln high, he actually gained weight during the Links' recent season . . . He won't be 18 until February, so will again be eligible for the National Junior tourney . . . Paul Merchant, Oklahoma's smooth basketball guard, is also a member of the Sooners' golf squad. . . . He is described as a long hitter, same as we tabbed his long shots on the maples.

Tommy Kirk

HOWIE ODELL'S Washington U. grid team of 1949 will include 10 junior college transfers . . . Writes Cutter Palmer, the Tekamah sage: "With Frank Leahy now relieved of athletic director duties, Notre Dame has a reasonable chance of fielding a fair team next fall" . . . Just give the Huskers' Bill Glassford Notre Dame's No. 5 quarterback and fullback and we'll be happy . . . Rather amazing in a way, a T-formation unit like Nebraska's with reigning weaknesses at those two spots.

Satchel Paige, Cleveland's 45-year-old hurler, requires the longest warming-up period in baseball . . . Without a long limber-up, Satch loses his control, as was evidenced by the four straight walks he recently dealt the Giants . . . It costs $12,000 these days to install an average golf hole . . . A. L. asks complete details on Omahan Rex Barney's 1949 record. Rex won 15, lost 13, tossed 247 innings, gave up 121 walks and struck out 138 . . . His no-hitter was against the Giants.

Most important early-season football mix of '49 will be the Oct. 15 game between Minnesota and Ohio State . . . It may settle the Big Nine championship—and the consequential Rose Bowl occupancy . . . Mike Gazella, manager of the Denver Bears, last week played host to an old New York Yankee teammate, Wilcy Moore . . . Moore, now an Oklahoma cotton farmer, was in Denver visiting his son, Udell . . . He saw the Denver-Lincoln opener . . . Add expectant poppas: Tommy Kirk of the A's . . . Mrs. Kirk has left Lincoln for the family home in Philadelphia.

Rain Halts A's Contest At Denver

. . . At Pueblo Tonight

(By the Associated Press)

Rain washed out two games in the Western league Tuesday night and Omaha tripped Des Moines 4-2 in the only remaining contest to climb into third spot in the loop ratings.

The postponed games were Lincoln at Denver and Sioux City at Pueblo.

Omaha's Cardinals made it two in a row in their new stadium by clustering four hits—two of them doubles—in the eighth inning for a pair of runs, breaking a 2-2 tie.

DOUBLES HELP.

In the last of the eighth Russ Kerns and Al Smith slapped successive doubles. Kerns romped home on Ed Nietopski's single and Smith tallied on a single by Fran Haus.

Joe Presko pitched steady baseball over the route for the winners, allowing Des Moines only four hits. Three Des Moines pitchers failed to stop the Cardinals.

The two teams play in Omaha again tonight.

Sioux City moves to Denver and Lincoln plays at Pueblo.

FIFTH PLACE.

Lincoln is now in fifth place in Western league standings. The A's have won twice and lost five times. Both losses in the Denver series came by one run.

Manager Jimmy DeShong is expected to send either Lynn Lovenguth or Lew Fauth to the hill tonight in an effort to stop the team's losing ways.

The A's return home Sunday to begin a three-game series with Pueblo.

Fritz Davis Should Aid Navy Eleven

(Special to The Star)

ANNAPOLIS, Md.—Fritz Davis, former Lincoln Northeast high school athlete, is listed among promising left tackle candidate for the 1949 Navy football squad by Coach George Sauer.

Davis is one of several members of last fall's plebe squad who have been given high rating by Mentor Sauer in a preview of Navy hopes for next fall.

Sauer has said that all positions on the 1949 club are still wide open. "Don't be surprised if our starting lineup varies from week to week, and you may find several members of the third class among the first eleven," he said.

BRONCS TOP PAIR

HASTINGS, Neb.—(AP)—Hastings won a double victory from Doane Tuesday. Hastings golfers won an 8-4 decision and the Hastings tennis team came out on top 5-1.

Sain, Jansen Knocked From Mound By Foes

By JOE REICHLER.

(Associated Press Sports Writer)

BOSTON'S Johnny Sain and the Giants' Larry Jansen are being tabbed Wednesday as the two biggest early season pitching flops of 1949.

Counted on to carry their teams this year following superlative '48 seasons, both have been terrific disappointments. Each has started three times with nary a victory.

HITTING HELPS.

Sain, whose 24 triumphs last year was the biggest single factor in bringing the first National league pennant to Boston in 34 years, currently owns an inglorious 0-2 won and lost record.

Johnny Sain

Jansen, fortunate in being backed by heavy hitting support, has been charged with only one defeat, but the Giants haven't won any of the games Jansen has started.

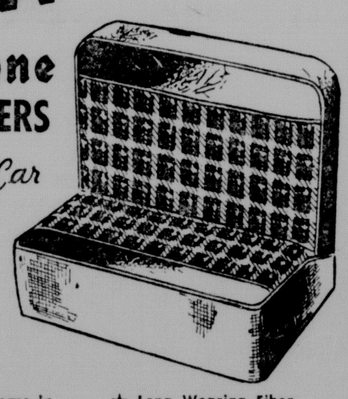

Both had extremely rough sledding Tuesday. Sain, who previously had been beaten by Philadelphia and shelled from the mound by the Giants, managed to go the distance, but he and the Braves were handed a 5-2 shellacking by the Brooklyn Dodgers in Ebbets field. The big righthander was tagged for nine hits including home runs by Gene Hermanski and Peewee Reese.

TRIPLE- PLAY MADE.

Preacher Roe spaced seven hits for his first victory for the Dodgers, who regained the league lead, a half game in front of idle Pittsburgh and the Giants. Hermanski, who replaced the light-hitting Cal Abrams in left field, got two hits and also made the field gem of the game. He started the first triple play of the season, coming in fast to make a running catch of Alvin Dark's short fly. A Hermanski-Jackie Robinson-Gil Hodges relay engineered the triple killing.

Jansen still hasn't pitched a complete game. He lasted only six innings Tuesday as the fightin' Phils came from behind to nip the Giants 12-11 in eleven innings.

If the number of letters is 6 or more, subtract 4. If the number is less than 6, add 3. The result is your key number. Start at the upper left-hand corner of the rectangle and check every one of your key numbers, left to right. Then read the message the letters under the checked figures give you.

Pilot Lands C-47 Safely In Atlantic

CRIPPLED PLANE 'DITCHED' NEAR COAST GUARD CUTTER

NEW YORK—(AP)—Four men in a crippled U. S. air force C-47 transport plane made an emergency landing beside a coast guard cutter far out in the Atlantic ocean early today and all were rescued unharmed.

The twin-engine transport, en route from the Azores islands to Argentina, Newfoundland, belly-landed beside the cutter Sebago at 1 a. m. (EST) 610 miles southeast of Newfoundland.

Coast guard area headquarters here said the plane developed engine trouble, and the pilot flew to the cutter, on stationary rescue and weather station duty at "Ocean Station Dog."

Returned to Cutter.

The engine trouble developed soon after the plane had made a routine communications check with the cutter. The plane returned to the fixed position of the cutter, messaging that the pilot, Lieut. Robert R. Bush, of Yuba City, Calif., was going to "ditch."

"The pilot made a fine emergency landing about 100 yards from the Sebago," the coast guard here side on the basis of radio reports

Others on the plane were Lieut John Jekel, Greeley, Colo., the copilot; Lieut. George H. Behrens, Chicopee Falls, Mass., navigator, and Staff Sgt. James B. Manion, of East Moline, Ill.

The rescue scene was 1,145 miles east northeast of Boston.

Wesleyan Chorus Scores Big Hit

Perfect shading coupled with unusual expressive interpretation were featured in a concert Tuesday night presented by the Wesleyan Male A Capella chorus.

Under the direction of Prof. Leonard Paulson, the 24-voice chorus sang a program of secular and sacred numbers. Soloists for the evening included Jerry Hedges, tenor of Central City; basses Dick Connell, Sidney, and Robert Larsen, Garden Grove, Cal. Dick Nesmith of Chester gave a reading on the crucifixion of Jesus.

From the opening "Stouthearted Men" by Romberg to their traditional Lvovsky's "Hospodi Pomiloi," the men sang with an ease and clarity that is not always evident in a varied program. Particularly entertaining to the audience of 600 which crowded into C. C. White auditorium on the Wesleyan campus was the ever-popular "Dry Bones," led by Al Gay, student director.

Outstanding in the group of sacred songs was Marryott's "Hosanna! Blessed Is He," and Ringwald's arrangement of "Battle Hymn of the Republic," was impressively presented.

Members of the chorus are:

Bill Cooper	Jerry Draucker
Dick Hart	Al Gay
Jerry Hedges	Darrell Grell
Lowen Kruse	Louis Kuntz
Bob Hensman	Lyle Nelson
Clarence Meister	Dick Nesmith
Dick Casselman	Ben Akert
Wally Harvey	Dick Connell
Dick Hughes	Francis Hitch
Robert Hunter	Robert Larsen
Dale Jarvis	Paul Swanson
Fred Loder	Craig Worrell

Pianist was Harold Erickson.

DALTON, Neb. — (AP) — Dr. J. B. Pankau today had a book filled with the pictures of 1,165 babies he has delivered in this community.

Japanese 1st Big Contributor To N. U. Dental College Fund

. . . Began Studies Here Penniless

A former penniless Japanese boy now operates a highly successful dental practice in Honolulu is the first major contributor to the University of Nebraska Dental College Fund.

Dr. Merritt C. Pedersen, Lincoln, fund chairman, said $1,000 was received this week from Dr. George K. Nakagawa. As a youth, Dr. Nakagawa left Hawaii for Ames, Ia., and enroute reached Lincoln practically penniless.

With the help of several Lincolnites, he enrolled in the university dental college and graduated in 1924. He now has a large practice in Honolulu, and was a delegate to the last Republican national convention.

The fund will be used for loans for needy dental students, and for the purchase of equipment and library purchases. The University of Nebraska Foundation is the fund trustee.

3 Lincoln Men To Attend U. S. Chamber Meet

Three officers of the Lincoln chamber of commerce will represent the group at the annual session of the United States Chamber in Washington next week, it was announced Wednesday at a meeting of the board of directors.

Officers are John Lawlor, president, Sam C. Waugh, national councillor and Archie J. Baley, general manager.

Monday night the Lincoln delegation will join with groups from Omaha, Beatrice, Fairbury, Grand Island, North Platte and Holdrege in entertaining Nebraska's congressmen and senators at a special dinner. A number of former Nebraskans now living in Washington and governmental officials whose agencies have a particular interest in Nebraska, will also attend, Lawlor said.

Waugh is a member of the national chamber's advisory committee on national affairs. Recently, he participated in a four-way national radio hookup in a discussion of the 81st congress, representing the national chamber. Other participants represented the National Grange, the AFL and the CIO.

"While in Washington we will renew contacts with various officials who from time to time are of service to Lincoln business firms and to the city of Lincoln generally," Waugh stated.

The Lincoln group will go by plane, leaving here Sunday.

Special guests at the board meeting were Colonel Howard John, head of the University of Nebraska ROTC unit, who has completed his three-year duty here, and his successor, Col. James W. Clyburn.

Pace Is Set By Steel Shares

NEW YORK(AP)—A demand for steel shares held the stock market to the higher side today by a slim margin.

Early brisk trading, in which a number of blocks of stock changed hands, helped push volume up the rate of 900,000 shares for the entire day. Aircraft were a soft spot in the market with losses running to around a point among the leaders.

Steels at their best were more than a point higher but some profit taking trimmed down the gains.

Buying interest in steels came from U. S. Steel Corp. Action yesterday in raising the quarterly dividend to $1.50 a share from $1.25 previously paid.

—Labor Bill—

1-Day Halt Of Work Is Urged

Rep. Klein Suggests Labor Show Sentiment Over Taft-Hartley Act

WASHINGTON—(AP) — Rep. Klein (D-NY) proposed in the house today that labor hold a one-day work stoppage to show congress how it feels about the Taft-Hartley act.

He said he had made the suggestion in a telegram to "heads of the big labor organizations."

Speaking in support of the administration's Lesinski bill to repeal Taft-Hartley and substitute a slightly expanded version of the old Wagner law, Klein said the stoppage would not be a strike. Rather, he said, it would be notice from labor that it wants the democrats to live up to the party's campaign promises.

The New Yorker assailed what he called a "reactionary coalition" of republicans and southern democrats.

Rep. Halleck (R-Ind) in what amounted to a reply to Klein, said it is "not anti-labor to give consideration to the rights of the public."

Earlier a northern democrat said he will try to tie a civil rights amendment onto the Wood bill.

The measure was offered by Rep. Wood (D-Ga) as a substitute for the administration's Taft-Hartley repeal bill. The Wood bill would repeal the Taft-Hartley act too, but it would then write back into law many of the Taft-Hartley features.

As the house went into its second day of debate on a new labor law, Rep. Cavalcante (D-Pa), a freshman lawmaker, said he will propose amending the Wood bill to make it an "unfair labor practice" for either an employer or union to discriminate against a worker because of race, creed or color.

Children Found Playing Near Old Open Well

An old abandoned wll was reported to police by a southwest Lincoln mother, alarmed after she disvovered her children playing near the well.

City authorities moved immediately to remedy the situation, which involves an open well at the south end of Ninth street zetween High and Calvert.

An investigation by Detective Frank Robbins and H. C. Schleuter, deputy city engineer, revealed that the circular well, 26 feet in diameter and about 43 feet deep, is uncovered.

Protective fencing around the well has been partly pulled down and some sections of the stone casement have fallen out, according to the report of the investigation.

The investigation revealed that the well is located on private property. Prior to purchase by the present owners the well was used as a railroad pumping station.

Schlueter estimated that filling the well would require about 900 cubic yords of earth.

Robbins said the well was pasted, with three danger signs in evidence. City Attorney John Jacobson stated the city would "do everything in our power to see that the well is put in safe condition."

Wheat, Corn Finish Mixed

CHICAGO—(AP)—While grains barely held small fractional gains, soybeans and lard came up with a show of strength on the board of trade today.

Soybeans spurted around 2 cents at times, helped by action of the senate finance committee in approving a bill to repeal federal taxes on oleomargarine. The house already has passed this measure. Soybean oil is used in making margarine.

Lard futures drew strength from a good demand for the cash product. Loose lard was bid at $11.50 a hundred pounds, up $1.67½ from the eight year low made earlier this month. The army was expected to enter the lard market later this week.

Trading in grains was fairly active despite the fact price changes were not large. Country offerings of cash corn were quite heavy with bookings totaling 180,000 bushels.

Wheat ended ½c lower to ½c higher. May $2.25⅝@2.24¾, corn was ½c lower to ⅝c higher May $1.35⅞@1.36, oats were ¼@⅜c higher, May 67¼@67⅝, rye was ½ to 1 cent higher, May $1.28, soybeans were 1½@1¾c higher May $2.27½@2.27¾, and lard was 10 to 32 cents a hundred pounds higher, May $12.10.
